Bank of Southern California Names Mariam Siryani Senior Managing Director

6/8/2020

San Diego, Calif., June 8, 2020 – Bank of Southern California, N.A. (OTC Pink: BCAL), a community business bank headquartered in San Diego, announced today the expansion of its business banking group in the Los Angeles market with the hiring of a seasoned Managing Director to support the company's continued growth in the Southern California region.

Mariam Siryani has joined Bank of Southern California as Senior Managing Director. She brings more than 17 years of industry experience, with a strong focus on branch management and business banking. A highly regarded banker with a proven history of results-driven success, Mrs. Siryani has achieved numerous honors and distinctions for her outstanding performance and leadership. Most recently, she served as Vice President, Branch Manager for Citibank in Westlake Village.

"We are excited to welcome Mariam to our growing Business Banking team. She has strong market knowledge, deep roots, and a long history of delivering custom financial solutions to entrepreneurs, professionals, and small to mid-sized businesses throughout Los Angeles County," said Michael Helmuth, Senior Vice President, Group Managing Director. "The addition of Mariam to our team is an important step in expanding our local presence as well as supporting the Bank's overall growth in the Southern California market," concluded Helmuth.
