NEWS RELEASE

Turtle Beach Heroes of the Storm™ PC Gaming Headset Now Available

2014-11-25

VALHALLA, N.Y., Nov. 25, 2014 /PRNewswire/ — Turtle Beach, the leading audio brand in the video games industry, today announced that the officially licensed Heroes of the Storm™ PC Gaming Headset is now available in stores and online. The Heroes of the Storm Stereo PC Gaming Headset is the ultimate headset for fans of Heroes of the Storm, an upcoming team brawler from Blizzard Entertainment that draws iconic characters from more than 20 years of Blizzard gaming history, including the award-winning Warcraft®, Diablo®, and StarCraft® franchises. Turtle Beach is the gaming audio brand of Turtle Beach Corporation (NASDAQ: HEAR).

The new stereo PC gaming headset features swappable speaker plates with different Blizzard characters, perfect for players eager to personalize their headset. Arthas, Diablo, and Kerrigan plates are available now, with more heroes being added at a later date. Powerful 50mm neodymium speakers deliver crisp highs and booming lows, and in-line controls provide easy access to volume as well as microphone mute. The headset also features breathable, around-the-ear cushions optimized for noise isolation and comfort along with a fully adjustable, high-sensitivity microphone on a removable boom for clear chat audio. The Heroes of the Storm PC Gaming Headset will retail for $79.95.

“Turtle Beach is honored to work with Blizzard on the Heroes of the Storm headset, and we’re excited to bring players a gorgeous new way to showcase their favorite heroes,” said Bob Picunko Chief Marketing Officer at Turtle Beach.

The Heroes of the Storm gaming headsets will join Turtle Beach’s growing PC gaming portfolio, which includes the Z60 DTS Headphone:X 7.1 channel surround sound headset, the Recon 320 Dolby® 7.1 channel surround sound headset, the Z SEVEN tournament Dolby® 7.1 channel surround sound headset, the Z300 wireless Dolby® 7.1 channel surround sound headset, and the stereo Z22 wired headset.
