Rating Action: Moody's upgrades UNFI's CFR to Ba3

20 Oct 2021

New York, October 20, 2021 -- Moody's Investors Service ("Moody's") today upgraded the corporate family rating and probability of default rating of United Natural Foods, Inc (UNFI) to Ba3 and Ba3-PD from B1 and B1-PD, respectively. Moody's also upgraded the company's senior unsecured notes to B2 from B3 and the company's senior secured term loan to B1 from B2. The company's speculative grade liquidity rating remains unchanged at SGL-1. The outlook is stable.

"UNFI's operating performance has been better than expected and the company has lowered its debt burden while improving EBITDA thereby improving credit metrics", Moody's Vice President Mickey Chadha stated. "The increase in sales volumes due to pantry loading during the coronavirus pandemic has also been a tailwind for the company and we expect the demand for specialty groceries will remain high even after consumer buying patterns normalize", Chadha further stated.

Outlook Actions:

..Issuer: United Natural Foods, Inc

....Outlook, Remains Stable

RATINGS RATIONALE

UNFI's Ba3 corporate family rating is supported by its very good liquidity, its formidable size in the supermarket distribution industry and its leadership position in the fast growing natural, organic and specialty food business. The acquisition of SUPERVALU Inc. diversified UNFI's customer base as well as its product offerings and has improved profitability and growth through leveraging fixed costs of the distribution operation and cost synergies. Although still high, the transaction reduced UNFI's sales concentration to Whole Foods Market, Inc. from about 38% of total sales prior the acquisition to below 20% on a combined basis. The company did have some initial integration issues regarding consolidating distribution centers that negatively impacted operating performance post acquisition, however those issues have been resolved and Moody's does not expect any deterioration in profitability and credit metrics in the next 12-18 months. The company has improved lease adjusted leverage from about 6.0x at the closing of the SUPERVALU Inc. transaction to 3.7x at the end of fiscal year ending July 31, 2021. Moody's expects lease adjusted leverage to remain below 4.0x over the next 12 months. The company recently signed a 10 year supply contract with Key Food to serve as the primary grocery wholesaler to Key Food and its members with expected sales to reach approximately $10 billion over 10 years. The added revenue growth will also result in increased profitability. The distribution business is a low margin fixed cost business therefore topline growth is important to grow profitability.

However, Moody's believes that the business environment will remain highly competitive especially for the independent food retailers or small retail grocery chains. These customers are being squeezed by larger, better capitalized traditional supermarkets and alternative food retailers thereby pressuring their growth and profitability.

The stable rating outlook reflects our expectation that UNFI's operating trends will remain positive, credit metrics will continue to improve, liquidity will remain very good and financial policies including but not limited to acquisitions will be balanced.

FACTORS THAT COULD LEAD TO AN UPGRADE OR DOWNGRADE OF THE RATINGS

Ratings could be upgraded if the company demonstrates sustained growth in sales, and profitability and maintains good liquidity. Quantitatively, ratings could be upgraded if debt/EBITDA is sustained below 3.5 times and EBITA/interest expense is sustained above 3.0 times.

Ratings could be downgraded if operating performance deteriorates. Ratings could also be downgraded if debt/EBITDA is sustained above 4.5 times or EBITA/interest is sustained below 2.25 times or if liquidity deteriorates or if acquisition activity causes deterioration in cash flow or credit metrics.

UNFI is a leading distributor of natural, organic, and specialty, produce, and conventional grocery foods and non-food products, and provider of support services in the United States and Canada. The company has 57 distribution centers and about $27 billion in revenue.
