Victoria Dolan recognized with “Leader of the Year” award at the global awards program

LONDON – Sept. 21, 2022 – International Game Technology PLC (“IGT”) (NYSE: IGT) announced today that Victoria Dolan, IGT Vice President and Deputy General Counsel, PlayDigital, recently won the “Leader of the Year” award in the 2022 Women in Gaming Diversity & Employee Wellbeing Awards. The annual awards program recognizes individuals and organizations for outstanding devotion to enhancing equality, diversity and inclusion.

Victoria plays a critical, strategic role in driving positive outcomes, mitigating company risk and maximizing growth opportunities for IGT and its customers. Throughout her five-year tenure at IGT, Victoria has continued to grow in her career, mentor others and help the Company achieve its diversity and inclusion goals. Her experience and sustained results in the lottery, land-based gaming and iGaming segments in Europe served as foundation for her new role supporting IGT PlayDigital globally, one of IGT’s fastest-growing and most complex business segments.

“Victoria is a consummate professional and exemplifies the concept of servant leadership by bringing out the best in those she leads while continuously driving exceptional results,” said Christopher Spears, IGT Executive Vice President and General Counsel. “She is a dedicated, enthusiastic leader and mentor and a champion of IGT’s Diversity and Inclusion programs. We thank the Women in Gaming Diversity & Employee Wellbeing Awards committee for recognizing Victoria’s contributions to the gaming industry and we congratulate her on this fantastic honor.”

Victoria serves on IGT’s Global Diversity and Inclusion Council, as well as its EMEA-specific regional council and is a member of IGT's Advancing Cultural Education (ACE) Diversity & Inclusion Group. Victoria also serves on the IGT Steering Committee for the UK After School Advantage program, helping to inspire children and young adults to pursue careers in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) industries in the UK.
