Old National Bank expands into Metro Detroit market

3/9/2023

EVANSVILLE, Ind., March 09, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Old National is expanding into the Metro Detroit market. Old National has secured office space in the Liberty Center building in Troy, Mich., which will house the Metro Detroit commercial banking team.

The team will be led by Rick Hampson who will serve as the Metro Detroit Market President. He joins Old National with 27 years of commercial banking experience in large corporate syndicated banking and middle market banking. Hampson will report to George Bailey, Old National's Michigan State Executive.

"We are excited about Old National's expansion into Metro Detroit, and we have a very experienced and dynamic team to help us lead the way," said Jim Sandgren, CEO Commercial Banking. "Old National is already very strong in other Michigan markets, and this group can certainly take us to the next level in establishing a commercial presence in this important growth market."

Old National's Metro Detroit team includes:

- Rick Hampson – Metro Detroit Market President
- Andrea Boucher - Commercial Real Estate Relationship Manager
- Sarah Knapp – Specialty Lending Relationship Manager
- Neran Shaya – Senior Housing Finance Relationship Manager
- Adam Zale – Commercial Real Estate Underwriter
- Daniel Zinser – Corporate Banking Relationship Manager
- Kevin Goryl – Strategic Talent Sourcer

"What excites me most about this expansion is that we have the right team and relationships in place to serve this important market," added Bailey. "This builds upon the great work we are doing with our clients throughout Michigan, and the move into Metro Detroit represents a natural growth progression for the bank."
