Old National Bank promotes Rob Triplett to Commercial Banking Executive in Minnesota

2021-12-13

Minneapolis, MN (Dec. 13, 2021) — Old National Bank is pleased to announce the promotion of Rob Triplett to Commercial Banking Executive, Senior Vice President in Minnesota. In his new role, Triplett will continue to build the Commercial Banking team serving Minnesota businesses. He will also manage a portfolio of clients and manage a team of relationship managers focused on building Old National's market share.

"We are grateful and excited that Rob agreed to make the move to Minnesota and take the helm for our Commercial Banking team," said Jim Collins, Minnesota Market President for Old National. "Rob is a proven consistent Old National leader, and we're confident about the positive impact he will have in our market."

"Rob is a proven consistent Old National leader, and we're confident about the positive impact he will have in our market."

Triplett began his banking career over 12 years ago and has been with Old National since 2014, most recently serving as Commercial Banking Relationship Manager in its Indianapolis market. Preceding his time in Indianapolis, he was a lender in the South Bend, Indiana region for nearly 10 years. Triplett's banking career started at 1st Source Bank in South Bend through a corporate trainee program that gave him experience in Retail Banking, Marketing, Credit Underwriting, Commercial Sales, Management, and Networking. Triplett earned his bachelor's from Anderson University in Anderson, Indiana. He is also a 2009 MBA graduate of Anderson University.

Triplett, who is a native of Flint, Michigan, has been a strong community champion over the years. Most recently he served on the advisory council for The Villages and on the Irsay YMCA board of directors, both located in Indianapolis. He is also a past graduate of the Elkhart Leadership Academy and South Bend Leadership Academy.

He has served as a board member for Big Brothers and Big Sisters, Boys and Girls Club, and a variety of programs focused on children and youth development.
