San Diego, CA – November 20, 2018 – Leading gaming headset and audio accessory brand Turtle Beach (Nasdaq: HEAR) today announced a new partnership with Redbox – America’s destination for renting new-release entertainment – offering free game rentals with the purchase of any new Turtle Beach gaming headset. Beginning today through Jan. 31, 2019*, fans who purchase a headset from www.turtlebeach.com will receive a code giving them Five Free One-Night Game Rentals from Redbox. “With more than 50 million customers last year and about three quarters of Americans living within a five-minute drive of a Redbox location, we’re excited about offering our collective fans the best of both worlds – great gaming audio and a great way to play the latest games,” said Andrew Lilien, Vice President of Marketing at Turtle Beach. “With so many big games available this holiday season and expected next year, these free rentals from Redbox add up and mean our fans can try out even more of the latest titles, on us.”

Redbox is America’s leading destination for movie and video game rentals with more U.S. retail locations than Starbucks and McDonald’s combined. Redbox is the only nationwide source for nightly video game rentals priced at just $3 a night, making it a great option for customers who want to try the newest games before they buy them.

“Redbox offers video game rentals at a great deal at convenient locations nationwide,” said Ash ElDifrawi, chief marketing and customer experience officer at Redbox. “Redbox gives gamers a great option for playing the biggest and best recent hits like Fallout 76, Call of Duty®, Assassin’s Creed, Spider-Man, and more, and Turtle Beach’s powerful, high-quality audio further ensures our customers have the best sound experience possible as they play the games they love.”
