2018-09-10

The Official Headset of DrDisRespect, the Recon 200 is Built to Win with Powerful Amplified Audio and Durable Comfort for $59.95

San Diego, CA – September 10, 2018 – Turtle Beach (NASDAQ: HEAR), the leading gaming audio brand, today announced the Recon 200 gaming headset has started hitting retail stores and is ready to help gamers achieve more victories on the multiplayer battlefield. Available just in time to kick off 2018's holiday gaming season, the Recon 200 is a wired headset available in a sleek black or bright white offering powerful amplified sound with enhanced bass, premium comfort, multiplatform compatibility with Xbox One, PlayStation®4, Nintendo Switch™, PC, and mobile gaming devices, plus a variety of other features like Variable Mic Monitoring – all for a MSRP of $59.95. The Recon 200 is available at www.turtlebeach.com and participating retailers in North America, and will be available in the UK and across Europe starting Sept. 28, 2018. Read below for full details on the Recon 200 gaming headset.

“Every level of gamer is looking for superior equipment that can give them an edge over the competition, and the new Recon 200 delivers the powerful sound, premium comfort, and performance needed to win, at a great price,” said Juergen Stark, CEO, Turtle Beach. “Whether players are jumping out of the bus for the first time or thousandth time, the Recon 200 can provide the audio advantage needed to claim that Victory Royale and/or top spot on the leaderboards.”

Originally debuted by none other than the Doc himself, the Recon 200 ticks all the boxes needed to exceed the stringent requirements to put it on “his level” of gaming excellence.

“The Recon 200 is a bass-boosted, shatter-your-skull, extremely tactical headset built to take you to the next level,” said DrDisRespect. “Nothing even comes close. It’s time to step-up and show me what you’ve got! The Recon 200...BOOM!”
