Information Regarding Global Code of Conduct and Ethics

On August 5, 2026, the Board of Directors of Unity Software Inc. (the "Company") approved amendments to the Company's Global Code of Conduct and Ethics (the "Code"), which applies to all directors, officers and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries. The material amendments to the Code include: (i) a new Prediction Markets section, which prohibits (a) using material non-public information learned through your relationship with the Company to bet or wager on any third-party platforms or prediction markets, and (b) betting or wagering on any third-party platforms or prediction markets with respect to business, financial, or other developments regarding the Company, regardless of whether such activity is based on material non-public information; (ii) clarifications regarding protected whistleblower communications of possible violations of law or regulation; and (iiI) clarifications regarding what constitutes a conflict of interest under the Code, as well as other administrative, confirmatory and clarifying edits. The amendments took effect upon adoption by the Board.

The foregoing summary of the amendments to the Code is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Code, as so amended, which is available in the "Governance Documents" section of our website at investors.unity.com.
