AMVAC® Named 'Top 10 Precision Farming Solutions Provider' for 2022

2023-01-05

AMVAC®, an American Vanguard Company, has been named a "Top 10 Precision Farming Solutions Provider" for 2022 by AgriBusiness Review magazine and is prominently featured in the publication's December 2022 edition.

Described by the magazine as "the embodiment of innovation and excellence in precision agriculture," AMVAC is lauded especially for its SIMPAS® prescriptive application system, SIMPAS-applied Solutions™ (SaS™) at-plant crop inputs, SmartCartridge® containers equipped with RFID-enabled Smart Tags™, and proprietary and patented ULTIMUS™ software platform to track and monitor SmartCartridge containers through each stage of the distribution channel.

Bob Trogele, AMVAC COO and EVP, is quoted extensively in the article. "Having over five decades of legacy, we offer a growing portfolio of technology solutions, including soil insecticides, nematicides, nutritional biologicals, and precision application systems through owned and operated manufacturing plants," Trogele told the publication. "These unique capabilities make us an emerging leader in soil health, preservation, and productivity to drive growth and sustainability.

AgriBusiness Review is a leading print and digital magazine which caters to over 83,000 qualified print and digital subscribers in the U.S. Crop management, precision farming, agriculture chemicals, smart farming, and agriculture supply chain management are among the subject areas featured in the magazine, which aims to serve key agricultural stakeholders including crop farmers, farm managers, and ag retailers.
