BOSTON - October 29, 2026 - Acadian Asset Management Inc. (NYSE: AAMI) reports its results for the third quarter ended September 30, 2026.

Kelly Young, Acadian Asset Management Inc.'s President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "Acadian delivered its eleventh consecutive quarter of positive net client cash flows, with $2.6 billion in the third quarter, bringing AUM to $239.6 billion. Record quarterly management fees of $187.8 million, up 38% year-over-year, contributed to record ENI earnings per share of $1.36, up 79% year-over-year.

As we celebrate our 40th anniversary, Acadian continues to build on its position as a leading systematic investment manager, supported by strong long-term investment performance and growing client demand for differentiated, data-driven investment strategies. Our success reflects deep research expertise, an innovative culture and a technology-driven investment process. Together with our expanding capabilities across Enhanced Equity, Extensions, Systematic Credit and Tax-Aware investing, we believe these strengths position us well to capture new growth opportunities while maintaining operating discipline.

Acadian's long-term investment performance remained strong. As of September 30, 2026, 96% of Acadian's strategies by revenue beat their respective benchmarks over the prior 3-, 5-, and 10- year periods, respectively.

Our strong cash generation continues to strengthen our balance sheet and enhance our financial flexibility, positioning us to invest in future growth while maintaining a disciplined approach to capital management and shareholder returns."
