CSG Invotas Wins 2014 TMC Internet Telephony Labs Innovation Award

Game-Changing Security Offering Selected for Exceptional Innovation

ENGLEWOOD, Colo.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CSG Invotas, the enterprise security business from CSG International \(NASDAQ:CSGS\), today announced that it has been selected as a 2014 Internet Telephony Labs Innovation Award winner.

CSG Invotas offers holistic security solutions that enable organizations to reduce risk by cutting response times to cyber attacks and decreasing the time analysts spend performing routine tasks. Invotas Security Orchestrator provides an automated threat response platform that supports a single integrated console with clickable defensive workflows to execute actions across enterprise-wide security tools.

"The Internet Telephony Labs Innovation Award represents the best and the most unique products and services the industry has to offer," said Rich Tehrani, chief executive officer of TMC. "CSG Invotas has proven its commitment to the ongoing development of the IP communications industry through its Security Orchestrator solution."

CSG Invotas Security Orchestrator is designed to deliver optimized response capability for large global organizations with security operation centers to unify security tools and information feeds, orchestrate defensive action, and automate repetitive tasks. Target industries include: communication service providers, governments, managed security providers, financial institutions, and utility service providers.

"Our innovative mindset is not limited to the industry-leading technology we provide," said Mike Henderson, president of CSG Invotas. "It also encompasses future-proof features that allow our clients to shift focus from simply supporting emerging technology to exploring the ways that technology can be securely used to drive business success. We continue to see market validation and recognition for our unique solutions to enterprise security needs."

In addition to winning the Internet Telephony Labs Innovation award, CSG will also showcase Invotas for the first time in Asia at the RSA Conference Asia Pacific Japan in Singapore next week. CSG Invotas will host the discussion, "Accelerate Your Security Operations with Machine Speed Responses to Cyber Attacks," at the event on Tuesday, 22 July at 1 p.m. in Roselle 4612. Bernie Thomas of Invotas will discuss how organizations can design automated courses of action to deliver faster response times.
