Austin FC and Q2 Support Local Nonprofits Through Q-munity Gives Grant Program

2025-09-23

Three (3) $50,000 grants will be awarded to organizations dedicated to supporting underrepresented communities in Central Texas

AUSTIN, Texas--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Austin FC and Q2 Holdings, Inc. announced today that the organizations are teaming up for the fifth consecutive year to support local nonprofits strengthening Central Texas communities through the Q-munity Gives grant program. As part of the annual program, Austin FC and Q2 will award three (3) separate $50,000 grants to three (3) nonprofit organizations that focus on the advancement of underrepresented communities through the impact areas of education, job skills and readiness, and health and wellness, for a total of $150,000.

Central Texas nonprofits Our Shared Kitchen, Senior Access and Yellow Bike Project were named the 2024 Q-munity Gives grant recipients.

"The Q-munity Gives grant program provides support to our Central Texas community, presenting opportunities and resources to help members of our robust local nonprofit community advance their missions," said Austin FC President Andy Loughnane. "We're grateful to work alongside our likeminded partners at Q2 for the fifth consecutive year on this highly important initiative."

"We're proud to continue to support local nonprofits through the Q-munity Gives grant program in partnership with Austin FC," said Q2 Chairman and CEO Matt Flake. "At Q2, our mission is to build strong and diverse communities by strengthening their financial institutions. This program allows us to extend that mission by investing in organizations driving meaningful impact in Central Texas communities."

For a grant application to be considered eligible, it must meet the following criteria:

- Program/project must fall within one or more of the following impact areas: (1) Education, (2) Job Skills & Readiness, (3) Health & Wellness;
- Program/project must be in the Central Texas community;
- Request must come from nonprofit organizations (no funding to individuals);
- Requested funds must be used to implement a project; capacity grants are not awarded by Austin FC and Q2 Q-munity Gives.
- Nonprofit organizations must be certified as tax exempt under Section 501(c) (3) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code and not a private foundation as defined in section 509(a) of the code; and
- Nonprofit organizations must be in good standing with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), the Texas Franchise Tax Board and the Texas Secretary of State.

The Austin FC and Q2 Q-munity Gives Grant Committee will accept applications from September 23 through October 10.

About Q2 Stadium

Q2 Stadium is the state-of-the art 20,738-seat, soccer-specific venue that features a natural grass playing surface and a signature canopy structure offering shade and coverage for all seats, while providing an unequaled event atmosphere. Approximately 30% of Q2 Stadium seats (6,000 seats) feature breathable mesh seating technology, making the stadium home to the most breathable mesh seats in a major league venue in the world. Q2 Stadium will host the Major League Soccer All-Star Game in 2025.

Q2 Stadium also features cutting-edge lighting capabilities as the first stadium in the world to install 100% of the field lighting system with tunable RGB LED lights. Q2 Stadium opened in June 2021, when Austin FC played its first MLS match at home on June 19 against the San Jose Earthquakes. Q2 Stadium received LEED Gold Certification from the U.S. Green Building Council in November 2021, recognizing the commitment to sustainability undertaken in the stadium's construction and design.
