Jacobs Awarded Contract Option at NASA Marshall Space Flight Center

2016-01-05

PASADENA, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Jacobs Engineering Group Inc. (NYSE:JEC) announced today it was awarded a modification to extend the Engineering and Science Services and Skills Augmentation (ESSSA) contract at NASA's Marshall Space Flight Center (MSFC) in Huntsville, Alabama.

The contract modification is for a one-year option with a potential value of $127.8 million. The option began October 3, 2015 and extends through September 30, 2016.

Under the terms of the ESSSA contract, Jacobs is providing science and engineering and technician support at MSFC. Major programs supported by Jacobs at MSFC include the Space Launch System, International Space Station, James Webb Space Telescope and numerous smaller space science and technology development projects.

In making the announcement, Jacobs Aerospace and Technology President Terence D. Hagen stated, "We are pleased to have this opportunity to maintain our longstanding work with NASA Marshall Space Flight Center. This contract modification enables us to continue to support its vital role in enabling space exploration and discovery."

Jacobs is one of the world's largest and most diverse providers of technical professional and construction services.
