Jacobs Awarded Design Contract for Pfizer Global Biotechnology Center in China

2016-08-23

PASADENA, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Jacobs Engineering Group Inc. (NYSE:JEC) announced today it was awarded a contract to lead design and provide engineering services, procurement and construction support for Pfizer, Inc.'s new $350 million Global Biotechnology Center investment in the Hangzhou Economic Development Area in China.

Under the terms of the agreement, Jacobs is responsible for developing the overall site design, which includes aseptic fill/finish, drug substance and central utility buildings; a quality laboratory; administration offices; and a warehouse. The facility is being built to produce monoclonal antibodies and also serve as a process development and clinical supply site for biologic medicines in China.

In making the announcement, Jacobs Senior Vice President Life Sciences Robert Norfleet stated, "This is an exciting opportunity for our Life Sciences business. We have a long history of helping Pfizer grow and expand its global manufacturing capabilities. We look forward to partnering with Pfizer once again to develop this state-of-the-art biotechnology center in China."

The facility is expected to be complete in 2018.
