Jacobs Provides Consulting Services to US Air Bases in Japan

2022-12-13

Project to lead facility planning and technical services

DALLAS, Dec. 13, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- Jacobs (NYSE:J) was selected to provide professional facility planning, programming, design and construction management services for the United States Air Force (USAF) at Yokota Air Base, Misawa Air Base and Camp Zama, Japan.

This indefinite delivery indefinite quantity (IDIQ) architecture and engineering (AE) services contract for the USAF 374th Airlift Wing, Yokota Air Base, Japan has a shared potential ceiling across multiple awardees of $99 million. The contract has an initial five-year base period with the option to renew for an additional two years. Services encompass the full range of Title I (Design Services), Title II (Construction and Inspection Services), and Title III services (Other Professional Services, Investigation, and Studies) work scope that support the construction and renovation of new and current installations. As the prime contractor, Jacobs plans to deliver global services in partnership with specialty Japanese sub-consultants, who understand Department of Defense (DoD) and Japanese government requirements on hazardous materials testing and handling, sub-surface investigations and topographical surveying.

"Jacobs has completed work for Yokota Air Base and the DoD in Japan for more than 30 years," said Jacobs Federal & Environmental Solutions Senior Vice President and General Manager and retired USAF Major General Tim Byers. "Continuing to bring the most innovative and resilient solutions in engineering design, consulting and advisory services, sustainability and cyber to the region supports the future missions of the Air Force and the DoD in Japan and worldwide."

At Jacobs, we're challenging today to reinvent tomorrow by solving the world's most critical problems for thriving cities, resilient environments, mission-critical outcomes, operational advancement, scientific discovery and cutting-edge manufacturing, turning abstract ideas into realities that transform the world for good. With approximately $15 billion in annual revenue and a talent force of approximately 60,000, Jacobs provides a full spectrum of professional services including consulting, technical, scientific and project delivery for the government and private sector.
