United States Transportation Command Selects Jacobs for IT Service Management

2017-05-02

Potential $89 million contract continues Jacobs' long history with Department of Defense

DALLAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Jacobs Engineering Group Inc. (NYSE:JEC) has been selected as the prime contractor for the United States Transportation Command (USTRANSCOM) TCJ6 Information Technology Service Management (ITSM) Enterprise Support Contract. The ITSM contract supports the USTRANSCOM and Surface Deployment and Distribution Command (SDDC) missions. The award includes a six-month base period and four one-year option periods that represent a potential maximum value of $89 million, if all options are exercised.

Jacobs will provide a full range of Information Technology (IT) support services including cyber security, network operations and maintenance, IT planning, system integration, technical testing and evaluation, analysis and guidance, software management, systems administration, hardware and software purchasing, hardware repair and enhancements, software configuration, service desk, end-user devices support/desktop services, architecture and infrastructure management, system management, audio/visual and video teleconferencing, and all deliverables related to these services.

"Jacobs has a long history of providing support to Department of Defense communities for more than 70 years, and this win provides an opportunity to showcase our advanced IT services," said Terry Hagen, Jacobs President of Aerospace and Technology. "This award represents an important milestone in our mission to be the world's premier provider of innovative IT solutions that deliver superior value."
