Mandi Grimes Joins First Mid Insurance Group

Mattoon, IL (November 13, 2024) First Mid Insurance Group (FMIG), a leading provider of comprehensive insurance solutions, is pleased to welcome Amanda ‘Mandi’ Grimes as an Account Manager leading their FMIG Select team. In her new role, Grimes will be responsible for leading a team of account management and administrative professionals who support small businesses with their insurance needs, including property, general liability, and cyber insurance.

An experienced insurance professional with 15 years in the industry, most recently with one of the largest commercial insurance brokers in the U.S., Grimes specializes in providing personalized solutions for businesses of all sizes. Seth Reedy, Chief Administrative Officer at First Mid Insurance Group, states, “We are excited to have Mandi join us and lead our FMIG Select team, which focuses on helping small- to medium-sized businesses with their insurance needs. She has in-depth knowledge of commercial insurance products and is committed to educating clients and ensuring they have the right coverage for their unique situations.”

Grimes holds the Construction Risk Insurance Specialist (CRIS) designation and continually stays updated with industry trends to offer the best advice and recommendations.

In addition to her professional accomplishments, Grimes is an active volunteer with CASA of Vermilion and Edgar Counties, where she advocates for children placed into temporary foster care. Her passion for giving back to the community is a testament to her commitment to making a positive impact.
