Wintrust Financial Corporation Announces Share Repurchase Program and Semi-Annual Dividend

2008-01-24

LAKE FOREST, Ill., Jan. 24 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Wintrust Financial Corporation ("Wintrust" or "the Company") (Nasdaq: WTFC) today announced that the Company's Board of Directors has authorized the Company to repurchase up to 1.0 million shares of its outstanding common stock over the next 12 months. Based upon Wintrust's current stock price, the number of shares that can be repurchased under the repurchase program represent approximately 4% of the Company's total shares of common stock outstanding based upon the approximately 23.5 million shares of common stock currently outstanding.

"We believe that our current share price does not reflect the long-term prospects of the Company and therefore represents an attractive investment. The decision to continue share repurchase programs highlights our continuing confidence in Wintrust's long-term growth and our commitment to promote long-term shareholder value," said Edward J. Wehmer, President and Chief Executive Officer. He further stated, "We will continue to maintain the flexibility to invest in our current business, take advantage of strategic opportunities and pay dividends." Wintrust will repurchase shares from time to time for cash in open market transactions or in privately negotiated transactions in accordance with applicable federal securities laws. The timing and amount of the repurchases will be determined by the Company's management based on their evaluation of market conditions, share price and other factors. The share repurchase program may be suspended or discontinued at any time.

This repurchase program follows the 1.0 million share repurchase program announced on April 30, 2007. Under that repurchase program, the Company repurchased all of the allocated 1.0 million shares during the third and fourth quarters of 2007 at an average price of $37.57 per share.

The Company also announced that its Board of Directors approved a semi-annual cash dividend of $0.18 per share of outstanding common stock. The dividend is payable on February 21, 2008 to shareholders of record as of February 7, 2008. This cash dividend, on an annualized basis, represents a 12.5% increase over the $0.32 per share common stock dividend paid during 2007.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of federal securities laws. Forward-looking information in this document can be identified through the use of words such as "may," "will," "intend," "plan," "project," "expect," "anticipate," "should," "would," "believe," "estimate," "contemplate," "possible," and "point." The forward-looking information is premised on many factors, some of which are outlined below. The Company intends such forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and is including this statement for purposes of invoking these safe harbor provisions. Such forward-looking statements may be deemed to include, among other things, statements relating to the Company's projected growth, anticipated improvements in earnings, earnings per share and other financial performance measures, and management's long-term performance goals, as well as statements relating to the anticipated effects on financial results of condition from expected developments or events, the Company's business and growth strategies, including anticipated internal growth, plans to form additional de novo banks and to open new branch offices, and to pursue additional potential development or acquisitions of banks, wealth management entities or specialty finance businesses. Actual results could differ materially from those addressed in the forward-looking statements as a result of numerous factors, including the following:

-- Competitive pressures in the financial services business which may affect the pricing of the Company's loan and deposit products as well as its services (including wealth management services).
-- Changes in the interest rate environment, which may influence, among other things, the growth of loans and deposits, the quality of the Company's loan portfolio, the pricing of loans and deposits and interest income.
-- The extent of defaults and losses on our loan portfolio.
-- Unexpected difficulties or unanticipated developments related to the Company's strategy of de novo bank formations and openings. De novo banks typically require 13 to 24 months of operations before becoming profitable, due to the impact of organizational and overhead expenses, the startup phase of generating deposits and the time lag typically involved in redeploying deposits into attractively priced loans and other higher yielding earning assets.
-- The unique collection and delinquency risks associated with premium finance receivables.
-- Failure to identify and complete acquisitions in the future or unexpected difficulties or unanticipated developments related to the integration of acquired entities with the Company.

-- Legislative or regulatory changes or actions, or significant litigation involving the Company.
-- Changes in general economic conditions in the markets in which the Company operates.
-- The ability of the Company to receive dividends from its subsidiaries.
-- The loss of customers as a result of technological changes allowing consumers to complete their financial transactions without the use of a bank.
-- The ability of the Company to attract and retain senior management experienced in the banking and financial services industries.

Therefore, there can be no assurances that future actual results will correspond to these forward-looking statements. The reader is cautioned not to place undue reliance on any forward looking statement made by or on behalf of Wintrust. Any such statement speaks only as of the date the statement was made or as of such date that may be referenced within the statement. The Company undertakes no obligation to release revisions to these forward-looking statements or reflect events or circumstances after the date of this press release. Persons are advised, however, to consult further disclosures management makes on related subjects in its reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and in its press releases.
