Wintrust Financial Corporation Selects New Bank President

2010-10-12

David E. Lee Tapped to Guide the Growth of Lake Forest Bank & Trust Company

Jack Meierhoff Appointed Chairman of the Board for Lake Forest Bank & Trust Company

LAKE FOREST, Ill., Oct. 12, 2010 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Wintrust Financial Corporation ("Wintrust" or "the Company") (Nasdaq:WTFC) announced the appointment of David E. Lee as President and Chief Operating Officer of Lake Forest Bank & Trust Company (LFBT). Based in Lake Forest, LFBT has seven locations in Lake County, with locations in Lake Bluff, Highland Park (as Highland Park Bank & Trust), Highwood (as Bank of Highwood-Ft. Sheridan) and North Chicago (as North Chicago Community Bank).

Bringing extensive commercial banking and credit experience, Lee assumes responsibilities at LFBT after joining Wintrust in 2009 as Chief Credit Officer for Northbrook Bank & Trust and President of Buffalo Grove Bank & Trust. Prior to joining Wintrust, Lee spent 23 years at JP Morgan Chase and its preceding companies, including Bank One, First Chicago NBD and American National Bank, where he was Senior Vice President responsible for the Middle Market Commercial Banking operations for Northern Cook, Lake and McHenry counties and Rockford. Lee received a B.S. from Northern Illinois University and an M.B.A. from DePaul University.

"David brings an amazing amount of experience, leadership and customer relationships to the organization," said Edward J. Wehmer, President & CEO of Wintrust. "He has a great following in Lake County."

Jack Meierhoff will remain Chief Executive Officer of LFBT and will be elevated to Chairman. "With both having extensive experience serving the needs of businesses in Lake County, Jack and David are uniquely suited to addressing opportunities in this market," stated Timothy Crane, Executive President of Wintrust. "Both are committed to meeting the needs of our communities and taking great care of our customers."

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of federal securities laws. Forward-looking information can be identified through the use of words such as "intend," "plan," "project," "expect," "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "contemplate," "possible," "point," "will," "may," "should," "would" and "could." Forward-looking statements and information are not historical facts, are premised on many factors and assumptions, and represent only management's expectations, estimates and projections regarding future events. Similarly, these statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict, which may include, but are not limited to, those listed below and the Risk Factors discussed under Item 1A of the Company's 2009 Annual Report on Form 10-K and in any of the Company's subsequent SEC filings. The Company intends such forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and is including this statement for purposes of invoking these safe harbor provisions. Such forward-looking statements may be deemed to include, among other things, statements relating to the Company's future financial performance, the performance of its loan portfolio, the expected amount of future credit reserves and charge-offs, delinquency trends, growth plans, regulatory developments, securities that the Company may offer from time to time, and management's long-term performance goals, as well as statements relating to the anticipated effects on financial condition and results of operations from expected developments or events, the Company's business and growth strategies, including future acquisitions of banks, specialty finance or wealth management businesses, internal growth and plans to form additional de novo banks or branch offices. Actual results could differ materially from those addressed in the forward-looking statements as a result of numerous factors, including the following:

- negative economic conditions that adversely affect the economy, housing prices, the job market and other factors that may affect the Company's liquidity and the performance of its loan portfolios, particularly in the markets in which it operates;
- the extent of defaults and losses on the Company's loan portfolio, which may require further increases in its allowance for credit losses;
- estimates of fair value of certain of the Company's assets and liabilities, which could change in value significantly from period to period;
- changes in the level and volatility of interest rates, the capital markets and other market indices that may affect, among other things, the Company's liquidity and the value of its assets and liabilities;
- a decrease in the Company's regulatory capital ratios, including as a result of further declines in the value of its loan portfolios, or otherwise;
- effects resulting from the Company's participation in the Capital Purchase Program, including restrictions on dividends and executive compensation practices, as well as any future restrictions that may become applicable to the Company;
- legislative or regulatory changes, particularly changes in regulation of financial services companies and/or the products and services offered by financial services companies;
- increases in the Company's FDIC insurance premiums, or the collection of special assessments by the FDIC;

- competitive pressures in the financial services business which may affect the pricing of the Company's loan and deposit products as well as its services (including wealth management services);
- delinquencies or fraud with respect to the Company's premium finance business;
- the Company's ability to comply with covenants under its securitization facility and credit facility;
- credit downgrades among commercial and life insurance providers that could negatively affect the value of collateral securing the Company's premium finance loans;
- any negative perception of the Company's reputation or financial strength;
- the loss of customers as a result of technological changes allowing consumers to complete their financial transactions without the use of a bank;
- the ability of the Company to attract and retain senior management experienced in the banking and financial services industries;
- failure to identify and complete favorable acquisitions in the future, or unexpected difficulties or developments related to the integration of recent acquisitions, including with respect to any FDIC-assisted acquisitions;
- unexpected difficulties or unanticipated developments related to the Company's strategy of de novo bank formations and openings, which typically require over 13 months of operations before becoming profitable due to the impact of organizational and overhead expenses, the startup phase of generating deposits and the time lag typically involved in redeploying deposits into attractively priced loans and other higher yielding earning assets;
- changes in accounting standards, rules and interpretations and the impact on the Corporation's financial statements;
- significant litigation involving the Company; and
- the ability of the Company to receive dividends from its subsidiaries.

Therefore, there can be no assurances that future actual results will correspond to these forward-looking statements. The reader is cautioned not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statement made by or on behalf of Wintrust. Any such statement speaks only as of the date the statement was made or as of such date that may be referenced within the statement. The Company undertakes no obligation to release revisions to these forward-looking statements or reflect events or circumstances after the date of this press release. Persons are advised, however, to consult further disclosures management makes on related subjects in its reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and in its press releases.
