CurblinE Properties Issues 2025 Corporate Sustainability Report

New York, New York, June 30, 2026 - CurblinE Properties Corp. (NYSE: CURB), an owner of convenience centers in suburban, high household income communities, announced today the release of its 2025 Corporate Sustainability Report. The report is CurblinE's first overview of the Company's sustainability efforts and was completed in alignment with the Task Force on Climate Related Financial Disclosures (TCFD).

"I am pleased to present CurblinE Properties' 2025 Corporate Sustainability Report, marking both our first report as a standalone company and our first full year of sustainability reporting. 2025 was a year of significant growth for CurblinE as we look to scale the fragmented but liquid convenience marketplace expanding our portfolio by 81 properties," said David R. Lukes, President and Chief Executive Officer. "This report provides an overview of our efforts, establishes important baseline metrics that will help guide future decision-making, and provides transparency for our stakeholders."

2025 Report Highlights:

- Established and executed on an underwriting framework for acquisitions providing a path to maximize operational efficiencies and incorporate appropriate energy sustainability initiatives into the onboarding process
- Invested almost $1 million into new and more efficient HVAC units which are estimated to have reduced annual energy usage by approximately 23%
- Implemented systems to measure and track utility usage across the portfolio to gauge like-for-like performance going forward
- Inventoried green and public transportation across the portfolio as part of the Company's nascent efforts to expand options for shoppers, vendors and tenant employees
- A Nominating and Sustainability Committee composed entirely of independent directors strives to ensure that the Board of Directors has an appropriate balance of knowledge, experience, skills, expertise and diversity required for our Board as a whole and oversees the Company's sustainability efforts

Safe Harbor

CurblinE Properties Corp. considers portions of the information in this press release to be forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, both as amended, with respect to the Company's expectation for future periods. Although the Company believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are based upon reasonable assumptions, it can give no assurance that its expectations will be achieved. For this purpose, any statements contained herein that are not historical fact, including statements regarding the Company's projected operational and financial performance, strategy, prospects and plans, may be deemed to be forward-looking statements. There are a number of important factors that could cause our results to differ materially from those indicated by such forward-looking statements, including, among other factors, changes in the economic performance and value of the Company's properties as a result of broad economic and local conditions, such as inflation, interest rate volatility and market reaction to tariffs and other trade policies; changes in local conditions such as an increase or decrease in the supply of, or demand for, retail real estate space in our geographic markets; the impact of changes in consumer trends, distribution channels, suburban population, retailing practices and the space needs of tenants; our dependence on rental income which depends on the successful operations and financial condition of tenants, the loss of which, including as a result of store closures or bankruptcy, could result in significant occupancy loss and negatively impact rental income from our properties; our ability to enter into new leases and renew existing leases, in each case, on favorable terms; our ability to identify, acquire, construct or develop additional properties that produce the cash flows that we expect and may be limited by competitive pressures, and our ability to manage our growth effectively and capture the efficiencies of scale that we expect from expansion; potential environmental liabilities; our ability to secure debt and equity financing on commercially acceptable terms or at all; the illiquidity of real estate investments which could limit our ability to make changes to our portfolio to respond to economic or other conditions; property damage, expenses related thereto and other business and economic consequences (including the potential loss of rental revenues) resulting from natural disasters, public health crises and weather-related factors in locations where we own properties, the ability to estimate accurately the amounts thereof and the sufficiency and timing of any insurance recovery payments related to such damages; any change in strategy; the effect of future offerings of debt and equity securities on the value of our common stock; any disruption, failure or breach of the networks or systems on which the Company relies, including as a result of cyber-attacks; impairment in the value of real estate property that we own; changes in tax laws impacting REITs and real estate in general, as well as our ability to maintain our REIT status; and our ability to retain and attract key management personnel. For additional factors that could cause the results of the Company to differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements, please refer to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K under "Item 1A. Risk Factors" and our subsequent reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly revise these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that arise after the date hereof.
