

Ameris Names Molly Walker Managing Director of Enterprise Development & Technology

ATLANTA January 16, 2026 - Ameris Bank is announcing the hire of Molly Walker as Executive Vice President and Managing Director of Enterprise Development & Technology. In this newly created role, Walker will report to Chief Information Officer Ross Creasy and oversee architecture, development, engineering, and lending technology across the organization.

Walker brings more than 15 years of enterprise technology experience and a strong business acumen to Ameris. Throughout her career, she has led transformative programs that optimize operations, enhance the customer experience, and accelerate organizational agility. She most recently served as Chief Technology Officer at PRGX Global, a software firm specializing in payments and revenue recovery. She also held leadership roles at InComm, the world's largest gift card producer, and Verizon.

"Molly Walker has proven capability to shape technology strategies for companies in the finance, healthcare, and technology sectors," said Creasy. "Her extensive experience and innovative approach to technology leadership will be instrumental as we continue to advance our enterprise development initiatives and deliver value to our clients."

Based in Atlanta, Walker holds both a bachelor's degree and an MBA from Georgia College & State University.
