

2025 Lobbying Report

In 2025, DICK'S Sporting Goods, Inc. (DICK'S) did not make payments in connection with federal lobbying activities. DICK'S did make payments in connection with state lobbying activities in Pennsylvania. The state lobbying reports for Pennsylvania can be found here.

DICK'S pays membership dues to certain industry groups and trade associations that help further its business interests and keep it aware of industry trends and issues. These organizations may engage in advocacy activities that advance common themes or interests of its members. Below are the only industry groups and trade associations to which the dues paid in 2025 were attributable to lobbying expenses in excess of $25,000:

	Total Dues	Dues Attributable to Lobbying
National Retail Federation, Inc.	$83,750	$83,750
U.S. Chamber of Commerce	$106,000	$42,400
Retail Industry Leaders Association[1]	$115,000	$74,750

From time to time, DICK'S may contribute to 501(c)(4) social welfare organizations, which may use those proceeds for independent political expenditures as permitted by law.
