DICK'S Sporting Goods Purchases Paul Skenes Topps MLB Debut Patch Card

2025-03-21

DICK'S will make the one-of-one card available to the Pittsburgh community by displaying it at the DICK'S House of Sport store in Ross Park

PITTSBURGH, March 21, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- DICK'S Sporting Goods today announced its purchase of the one-of-one Paul Skenes Topps MLB Debut Patch card after winning the multi-week auction conducted by Fanatics Collect March Premier Auction. The card, featuring the patch Skenes wore on his jersey sleeve during his Major League debut and Skenes' autograph, will be proudly displayed for the community to see at the DICK'S House of Sport store in the company's and the Pirates' shared hometown of Pittsburgh, PA. Details about when the card will be on display will be announced at a later date.

"DICK'S is passionate about bringing fans closer to the game," said Ed Stack, Executive Chairman, DICK'S. "Acquiring the Paul Skenes MLB Debut Patch card enables us to celebrate his incredible talent while giving our athletes a unique opportunity to experience a piece of baseball history up close. We're thrilled to bring this special card home and display it in our Pittsburgh House of Sport store where it can inspire the next generation of athletes and collectors."

The card will be displayed in a new collectors' space at the Ross Park House of Sport, which will feature a trading cards and memorabilia experience. These specialty shops will be rolled out to select House of Sport stores nationwide, including Pittsburgh, in Spring 2025.

All Fanatics Collect proceeds from the sale of the card will be directly donated to LA Fire Relief funds.
