CDW (Nasdaq: CDW) provides integrated technology solutions and services to more than 250,000 business, government, education, and healthcare customers across the United States, the United Kingdom, and Canada to help its customers navigate an increasingly complex IT market and maximize return on their technology investments.

MARKET-LEADING PERFORMANCE

ATTRACTIVE GROWTH PROFILE

CDW is an IT market leader; yet due to the fragmented market, it holds a low share of its approximately $450 billion³ current addressable market.

CDW's full suite of offerings includes discrete hardware and software products, services, and complex technology solutions and services such as on-premise, hybrid, and cloud capabilities across data center and networking, digital workspace, security, and virtualization, with more than 100,000 products and solutions from over 1,000 leading and emerging brands.

With its scale and scope, performance-driven culture, and unique value proposition, CDW is well-positioned to continue to profitably capture share and drive superior returns.

AN ATTRACTIVE BUSINESS MODEL

CDW sits between customers and vendor partners, creating unique value for both

Customers get access to a broad selection of multi-branded solutions and deeply technical resources, including highly-skilled, extensively certified specialists and engineers. CDW serves as an extension of its customers' IT staff.

Partners get access to CDW's more than 250,000 customers and augment their product offerings with a wide range of value-added IT and distribution services. CDW serves as an extension of its partners' sales and marketing resources.

Being close to customers and partners, CDW gains unique insight into the needs and requirements of both groups. As a result, both customers and vendor partners increasingly rely on the indirect sales channel.

Indirect Channel is ~60% of the Total Sales Channel¹

SUSTAINABLE COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGES

CDW goes to market with a series of sustainable competitive advantages developed during 40+ years of delivering technology to customers. Each is powerful on its own, but the combination of these interconnected advantages makes it hard for others to replicate CDW's success.

1. CDW Market Model December 31, 2025.

1. Certain annual outlooks are provided on a non-GAAP basis because certain reconciling items are dependent on future events that either cannot be controlled, such as currency impacts or interest rates, or reliably predicted because they are not part of CDW's underlying performance, such as refinancing activities or acquisition and integration expenses. Further, for the same reasons, a reconciliation of these forward-looking non-GAAP measures to the most directly comparable GAAP measure cannot be provided without unreasonable efforts.

Although CDW believes that its plans, intentions, and other expectations reflected in or suggested by such forward-looking statements are reasonable, it can give no assurance that it will achieve those plans, intentions, or expectations. Reference is made to a more complete discussion of forward-looking statements and applicable risks contained under the captions "Forward-Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors" in CDW's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025, and subsequent filings with the SEC. NON-GAAP FINANCIAL INFORMATION:

Generally, a non-GAAP financial measure is a numerical measure of a company's performance or financial condition that either excludes or includes amounts that are not normally included or excluded in the most directly comparable measure calculated and presented in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). Non-GAAP financial measures used by management may differ from similar measures used by other companies, even when similar terms are used to identify such measures.

Our non-GAAP performance measures include Non-GAAP selling and administrative expenses, Non-GAAP operating income, Non-GAAP operating income margin, Non-GAAP net income, Non-GAAP net income per diluted share, and Net sales on a constant currency basis, and our non-GAAP financial condition measures include Free cash flow, Adjusted free cash flow, and Return on working capital ("ROWC"). These non-GAAP performance measures and non-GAAP financial condition measures are collectively referred to as "non-GAAP financial measures."

Non-GAAP operating income and Non-GAAP selling and administrative expenses exclude, among other things, charges related to the amortization of acquisition-related intangible assets, equity-based compensation and the associated payroll taxes, acquisition and integration expenses, transformation initiatives, and workplace optimization. Non-GAAP operating income margin is defined as Non-GAAP operating income as a percentage of Net sales. Non-GAAP net income and Non-GAAP net income per diluted share exclude, among other things, charges related to the amortization of acquisition-related intangible assets, equity-based compensation and the associated payroll taxes, acquisition and integration expenses, transformation initiatives, workplace optimization, and their associated income tax effects. Net sales on a constant currency basis is defined as Net sales excluding the impact of foreign currency translation on Net sales. Free cash flow is defined as Net cash provided by operating activities less capital expenditures. Adjusted free cash flow is defined as Free cash flow adjusted to include certain cash flows from financing activities incurred in the normal course of operations or as capital expenditures. ROWC is defined as the percentage of Non-GAAP operating income after-tax divided by working capital.

We believe our non-GAAP performance measures provide analysts, investors, and management with useful information regarding the underlying operating performance of our business, as they remove the impact of items that management believes are not reflective of underlying operating performance. Management uses these measures to evaluate period-over-period performance as management believes they provide a more comparable measure of the underlying business. We also present non-GAAP financial condition measures as we believe they provide analysts, investors, and management with more information regarding our liquidity and capital resources. Certain non-GAAP financial measures are also used to determine certain components of performance-based compensation.

Our outlook includes non-GAAP financial measures because certain reconciling items are dependent on future events that either cannot be controlled, such as currency impacts or interest rates, or reliably predicted because they are not part of our underlying performance, such as refinancing activities or acquisition and integration expenses.

Non-GAAP financial measures in this presentation are denoted with an asterisk (*) when shown. For a reconciliation of non-GAAP financial measures to the most comparable GAAP financial measures, see the CDW Investor Relations website: <https://investor.cdw.com/financials/quarterly-results/default.aspx>.
