

OKTA, INC.

AMENDED AND RESTATED AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

I. GENERAL STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The principal responsibilities and duties of the Audit Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Okta, Inc. (the “Company”) are set forth below. These duties are set forth as a guide, with the understanding that the Committee will carry them out in a manner that is appropriate given the Company’s needs and circumstances. The Committee or the Board may supplement these as appropriate and may establish policies and procedures from time to time that it deems necessary or advisable in fulfilling its responsibilities.

The primary purpose of the Committee shall be to act on behalf of the Board in fulfilling the Board’s oversight responsibilities with respect to (i) the Company’s corporate accounting and financial reporting processes, systems of internal control over financial reporting and audits of financial statements, systems of disclosure controls and procedures, as well as the quality and integrity of the Company’s financial statements and reports, (ii) the selection, engagement terms, fees, qualifications, independence and performance of the registered public accounting firm or firms engaged as the Company’s independent outside auditors for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing audit services (the “Auditors”), (iii) any reports or other disclosure required by the applicable rules and regulations of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) to be included in the Company’s annual proxy statement and periodic reports within the scope of authority outlined herein and (iv) the performance of the Company’s internal audit function (“Internal Audit”).

The policy of the Committee, in discharging these obligations, shall be to maintain and foster an open avenue of communication between the Committee and the Auditors and the Company’s financial management and Internal Audit.

II. AUDIT COMMITTEE COMPOSITION

The Committee shall consist of at least three members of the Board. The members of the Committee shall satisfy (i) the independence and experience requirements imposed by the SEC and by the listing rules of The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”), including any exceptions permitted by such requirements, as applicable to Committee members as in effect from time to time, when and as required by the SEC and Nasdaq, and (ii) any other qualifications determined from time to time by the Board or the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board (the “Nominating Committee”). Each Committee member must be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including a company’s balance sheet, income statement and cash flow statement. At least one member of the Committee must satisfy the applicable financial sophistication requirements, as in effect from time to time, and any other requirement, as in effect from time to time, for accounting or related financial management expertise, as determined by the Board in its business judgment, as required by Nasdaq. At least one member of the Committee must be an “audit committee financial expert” as defined by the SEC. The members of the Committee shall be appointed annually by and serve at the discretion of the Board. Resignation or removal of a director from the Board for any reason shall automatically constitute resignation or removal, as applicable, from the Committee. Vacancies occurring, for whatever reason, may be filled by the Board. Unless a chairperson is designated by the Board, the Committee may designate a chairperson of the Committee by majority vote of the full Committee membership.

III. OPERATING PRINCIPLES AND PROCESSES

In fulfilling its functions and responsibilities, the Committee should give due consideration to the following operating principles and processes:

- Communication – Regular and meaningful contact with the Board, members of senior management and independent professional advisors to the Board and its various committees, as applicable, shall be encouraged as a means of strengthening the Committee’s knowledge of relevant current and prospective corporate accounting and financial reporting issues.
- Committee Education/Orientation – Developing with management and participating in a process for systematic review of important accounting and financial reporting issues and trends in accounting and financial reporting practices that could potentially impact the Company shall be encouraged to enhance the effectiveness of the Committee.
- Information Needs – The Committee members shall communicate to the Chief Financial Officer (the “CFO”) or his or her designees the Committee’s expectations, and the nature, timing, and extent of any specific information or other supporting materials requested by the Committee for its meetings and deliberations.
- Meeting Agendas – Committee meeting agendas shall be the responsibility of the chairperson of the Committee, with input from the Committee members and other members of the Board as well as, to the extent deemed appropriate by the chairperson, from members of senior management and outside advisors.

IV. MEETINGS AND MINUTES

The Committee shall hold such regular or special meetings as its members shall deem necessary or appropriate. The Committee will meet at least quarterly and hold such special meetings as its members shall deem necessary or appropriate. The chairperson of the Committee shall preside at each meeting. If a chairperson is not designated or present, an acting chairperson may be designated by the Committee members present. Minutes of each meeting of the Committee shall be prepared and distributed to each director of the Company and the Secretary of the Company promptly after each meeting. The Committee may also act by unanimous written consent (which may include electronic consent) in lieu of a meeting to the extent permitted by the Company’s bylaws as may be adopted and amended by the Board from time to time (the “Bylaws”), which shall constitute a valid action of the Committee if it has been executed by each Committee member and shows the date of execution. Any written consent will be effective on the date of the last signature and will be distributed to the Secretary of the Company promptly after execution. The chairperson of the Committee shall report to the Board from time to time, or whenever so requested by the Board.

As part of its responsibility to foster open communication, the Committee will meet periodically in separate executive sessions with management, the head of Internal Audit and the Auditors, except as otherwise determined by the Committee.

V. AUTHORITY

The Committee shall have access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company as deemed necessary or appropriate by any member of the Committee to discharge his or her responsibilities hereunder. The Committee shall have sole discretion to appoint, determine compensation for (at the Company's expense), retain and oversee the Auditors (as set forth in Section 10A(m)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules thereunder) and otherwise to fulfill its responsibilities under this Charter. The Committee shall have authority to retain and determine compensation for, at the expense of the Company, special legal, accounting or other advisors or consultants as it deems necessary or appropriate in the performance of its duties. The Committee shall also have authority to pay, at the expense of the Company, ordinary administrative expenses (including expenditures for external resources) that, as determined by the Committee, are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties. The Committee shall have authority to require that any of the Company's personnel, counsel, accountants (including the Auditors) or investment bankers, or any other consultant or advisor to the Company attend any meeting of the Committee or meet with any member of the Committee or any of its special, outside legal, accounting or other, advisors or consultants.

The Committee may form and delegate authority to one or more subcommittees as appropriate. Delegation by the Committee to any subcommittee shall not limit or restrict the Committee on any matter so delegated, and, unless the Committee alters or terminates such delegation, any action by the Committee on any matter so delegated shall not limit or restrict future action by such subcommittee on such matters. The Committee shall not delegate to a subcommittee any power or authority required by applicable law or the requirements of Nasdaq to be exercised by the Committee as a whole. The operation of the Committee shall be subject to the Bylaws as in effect from time to time and Section 141 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. Any action or decision of a subcommittee or the chairperson, including, without limitation, to preapprove audit or non-audit services, shall be presented to the full Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

VI. RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee's responsibility is one of oversight. The members of the Committee are not employees of the Company, and they do not perform, or represent that they perform, the functions of management or the Auditors. The Committee relies on the expertise and knowledge of management, the head of Internal Audit and the Auditors in carrying out its oversight responsibilities. The management of the Company is responsible for preparing accurate and complete financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States ("U.S. GAAP"), preparing periodic reports and for establishing and maintaining appropriate accounting principles and financial reporting policies and satisfactory internal control over financial reporting. The Auditors are responsible for auditing the Company's annual consolidated financial statements and the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting and reviewing the Company's quarterly financial statements. It is not the responsibility of the Committee to prepare or certify the Company's financial statements, guarantee the audits or reports of the Auditors, certify as to whether the independent auditor is "independent" under applicable rules or ensure that the financial statements or periodic reports are complete and accurate, conform to U.S. GAAP or otherwise comply with applicable laws, the Company's internal policies, procedures or controls.

The Committee shall oversee the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board, shall have direct responsibility for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of the Auditors and any other registered public accounting firm engaged for the purpose of performing other review or attest services for the Company. The Auditors and each such other registered public accounting firm shall report directly to and be accountable to the Committee. The Committee's functions and procedures should remain flexible to address changing circumstances most effectively. To implement the Committee's purpose and policy, the Committee shall be charged with the following functions and responsibilities with the understanding, however, that the Committee may supplement or (except as otherwise required by applicable laws or requirements of Nasdaq) deviate from these activities as appropriate under the circumstances:

1. Evaluation and Retention of Auditors. To evaluate the performance of the Auditors, to assess their qualifications (including their internal quality control procedures and any material issues raised by that firm's most recent internal quality control review or any investigations by regulatory authorities) and to determine whether to retain, or to terminate, the engagement of the existing Auditors, or to appoint and engage a different independent registered public accounting firm.

2. Communication Prior to Engagement. Prior to engagement of any prospective independent outside auditors, to review a written disclosure by the prospective auditors of all relationships between the prospective auditors, or their affiliates, and the Company, or persons in financial oversight roles at the Company, that may reasonably be thought to bear on independence, and to discuss with the prospective auditors the potential effects of such relationships on the independence of the prospective auditors, consistent with Ethics and Independence Rule 3526, Communication with Audit Committees Concerning Independence ("Rule 3526"), of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (the "PCAOB"), or any applicable successor rules as may be adopted.

3. Approval of Audit Engagements. To determine and approve engagements of the Auditors, prior to commencement of such engagements, to perform all proposed audit, review and attest services, including the scope of and plans for the audit, the adequacy of staffing, the compensation to be paid, at the Company's expense, to the Auditors and the negotiation and execution, on behalf of the Company, of the Auditors' engagement letters, which approval may be pursuant to preapproval policies and procedures established by the Committee consistent with applicable laws and rules, including the delegation of preapproval authority to one or more Committee members, permitted exceptions and a threshold de minimis amount so long as any such preapproval decisions are presented to the full Committee at the next scheduled meeting.

4. Approval of Non-Audit Services. To determine and approve engagements of the Auditors, prior to commencement of such engagements (unless in compliance with exceptions available under applicable laws and rules related to immaterial aggregate amounts of services), to perform any proposed permissible non-audit services, including the scope of the service and the compensation to be paid therefor, at the Company's expense, which approval may be pursuant to preapproval policies and procedures established by the Committee consistent with applicable laws and rules, including the delegation of preapproval authority to one or more Committee members so long as any such preapproval decisions are presented to the full Committee at the next scheduled meeting.

5. Audit Partner Rotation. To monitor the rotation of the partners of the Auditors on the Company's audit engagement team as required by applicable laws and rules.

6. Auditor Independence. At least annually, consistent with Rule 3526, to receive and review written disclosures from the Auditors delineating all relationships between the Auditors, or their affiliates, and the Company, or persons in financial oversight roles at the Company, that may reasonably be thought to bear on independence and a letter from the Auditors affirming their independence, to consider and discuss with the Auditors any potential effects of any such relationships on the independence of the Auditors as well as any compensation or services that could affect the Auditors' objectivity and independence, and to assess and otherwise take appropriate action to oversee the independence of the Auditors.

7. Audited Financial Statement Review. To review, upon completion of the audit, the financial statements proposed to be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K to be filed with the SEC and any disclosure from the Company's Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO") and CFO to be made in connection with the certification thereof, and to recommend whether or not such financial statements should be so included.

8. Annual Audit Results. To review with management and the Auditors, the results of the annual audit, including the Auditors' assessment of the quality of the Company's accounting principles and practices, the Auditors' views about qualitative aspects of the Company's significant accounting practices, the reasonableness of significant judgments and estimates (including material changes in estimates and analyses of the effects of alternative U.S. GAAP methods on the financial statements), all known and likely misstatements identified during the audit (other than those the Auditors believe to be trivial), the adequacy of the disclosures in the financial statements, and any other matters required to be communicated to the Committee by the Auditors under the standards of the PCAOB.

9. Auditor Communications. At least annually, to discuss with the Auditors the matters required to be discussed by Auditing Standard No. 16, Communications with Audit Committees, as amended, as adopted by the PCAOB (including any successor rule adopted by the PCAOB).

10. Annual and Quarterly Reports. To review with management and the Auditors, as appropriate, the results of the Auditors' review of the Company's audited annual and quarterly financial statements, and any disclosure from the Company's CEO and CFO to be made in connection with the certification of the Company's Annual Reports on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q prior to filing with the SEC and public disclosure of financial information, and any other matters required to be communicated to the Committee by the Auditors under the standards of the PCAOB. To review with management and the Auditors, to the extent appropriate, other relevant reports or financial information submitted by the Company to any governmental body or the public, including management certifications as required in Item 601(b)(31) of Regulation S-K and relevant reports rendered by the Auditors (or summaries thereof).

11. Management's Discussion and Analysis. To review with management and the Auditors, as appropriate, the Company's disclosures contained under the caption "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” in its Annual Reports on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q to be filed with the SEC.

12. Press Releases. To review with management and the Auditors, to the extent appropriate, earnings press releases, as well as the substance of financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and ratings agencies (including, without limitation, reviewing any pro forma or non-GAAP information), which discussions may be general discussions of the type of information to be disclosed or the type of presentation to be made.

13. Accounting Principles and Policies. To review with management and the Auditors, as appropriate, significant issues that arise regarding accounting principles and financial statement presentation, including critical accounting policies and practices, alternative accounting policies available under U.S. GAAP related to material items discussed with management, the potential impact on the Company’s financial statements of off-balance sheet structures and any other significant reporting issues and judgments, significant regulatory, legal and accounting initiatives or developments that may have a material impact on the Company’s financial statements, compliance programs and policies if, in the judgment of the Committee, such review is necessary or appropriate.

14. Risk Assessment and Management. To review and discuss with management and the Auditors, as appropriate, the Company’s guidelines and policies with respect to financial risk management and financial risk assessment, including the Company’s major financial risk exposures and the steps taken by management to monitor and control these exposures.

15. Management Cooperation with Audit. To evaluate the cooperation received by the Auditors during their audit examination, including any significant difficulties encountered during the audit or any restrictions on the scope of their activities or access to required records, data and information and, whether or not resolved, significant disagreements with management and management’s response, if any.

16. Management Letters. To review with the Auditors and, if appropriate, management, any “management” or “internal control” letter issued or, to the extent practicable, proposed to be issued by the Auditors and management’s response, if any, to such letter, as well as any additional material written communications between the Auditors and management.

17. Internal Auditors. At least annually: to review and approve Internal Audit’s plan for each fiscal year (the “Internal Audit Plan”), and periodically review performance against the Internal Audit Plan for the relevant fiscal year; to review the qualifications, staffing, locations, compensation and performance of the Internal Audit team and reliance upon management and general audit approach and any significant reports prepared by Internal Audit, as well as management’s responses; to approve the hiring and dismissal of the head of Internal Audit, to review and recommend changes, as appropriate, to the Internal Audit Charter to ensure that the function has guidelines that allow it to operate effectively; and to ensure that the head of Internal Audit (and those reporting to such individual on Internal Audit matters) has access to the Company’s records, cooperation from management and other employees, budget and resources, as necessary to permit the function to operate effectively. To periodically review with the Auditors, the responsibility, budget and staffing of Internal Audit. To discuss, with the Auditors and management, Internal Audit and the extent to which changes or improvements in financial or accounting practices have been implemented. The head of Internal Audit will report to and be evaluated by the Committee, which may be represented by the chairperson of the Committee.

18. National Office Communications. To review with the Auditors, as appropriate, communications between the audit team and the Auditors' national office with respect to accounting or auditing issues presented by the engagement.

19. Disagreements between Auditors and Management. To review with management and the Auditors, or any other registered public accounting firm engaged to perform review or attest services, any conflicts or disagreements between management and the Auditors, or such other accounting firm, whether or not resolved, regarding financial reporting, accounting practices or policies or other matters, that individually or in the aggregate could be significant to the Company's financial statements or the Auditors' report, and to resolve any conflicts or disagreements regarding financial reporting.

20. Internal Control over Financial Reporting; Disclosure Controls. To confer with management and the Auditors, as appropriate, regarding the scope, adequacy, and effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting and the Company's disclosure controls and procedures, including any significant deficiencies and significant changes in internal controls. To obtain reports on significant findings and recommendations with respect to internal controls over financial reporting, together with management responses and any special audit steps adopted in light of any material control deficiencies.

21. Separate Sessions. Periodically, to meet in separate executive sessions with the Auditors, the head of Internal Audit and management to discuss any matters that the Committee, the Auditors, the head of Internal Audit or management believe should be discussed privately with the Committee.

22. Correspondence with Regulators. To consider and review with management, the Auditors, outside counsel, as appropriate, and any special counsel, separate accounting firm or other consultants and advisors as the Committee deems appropriate, any correspondence with regulators or governmental agencies and any published reports that raise material issues regarding the Company's financial statements or accounting policies.

23. Complaint Procedures. To adopt procedures, when and as required by applicable laws and rules, for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding (i) accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters and the confidential and anonymous submission by employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters, (ii) potential violations of the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act or the U.K. Bribery Act or (iii) potential violations of the U.S. federal securities laws, including any rules and regulations.

24. Engagement of Registered Public Accounting Firms. To determine and approve engagements of any registered public accounting firm (in addition to the Auditors), prior to commencement of such engagements, to perform any other review or attest service, including the compensation to be paid, at the Company's expense, to such firm and the negotiation and execution, on behalf of the Company, of such firm's engagement letter, which approval may be pursuant to preapproval policies and procedures, including the delegation of preapproval authority to one or more Committee members, so long as any such preapproval decisions are presented to the full Committee at the next scheduled meeting.

25. Ethical Compliance. At least annually, to review the results of management's efforts to monitor compliance with the Company's programs and policies designed to ensure adherence to applicable laws, rules and regulations, as well as to its Code of Conduct, including review and oversight of related party transactions as required by applicable laws or requirements of Nasdaq.

26. Investigations. To investigate any matter brought to the attention of the Committee within the scope of its duties if, in the judgment of the Committee, such investigation is necessary or appropriate.

27. Related Party Transactions. To consider and approve or disapprove any related party transaction as defined under Item 404 of Regulation S-K, to the extent required by SEC regulations and in accordance with any policy regarding related party transactions as may be adopted by the Board or Committee.

28. Proxy Report. To oversee the preparation of the audit committee report required by the rules of the SEC to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.

29. Annual Charter Review. To review and assess the adequacy of this Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

30. Report to Board. To report to the Board with respect to material issues that arise regarding the quality or integrity of the Company's financial statements, the Company's compliance with legal or regulatory requirements, the performance or independence of the Auditors, the performance of Internal Audit or such other matters as the Committee deems appropriate from time to time or as the Board may request.

31. Internal Control Report. To obtain and review a report by the Auditors describing that firm's internal quality control review or peer review or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, with respect to one or more independent audits performed by the firm, as well as any steps taken to address the issues raised.

32. Annual Committee Evaluation. To conduct an annual evaluation of the performance of the Committee and report to the Board on the results of such evaluation.

33. Other Legal and Finance Matters. To review, with the Company's counsel, legal and regulatory compliance and all actual, pending or threatened legal matters that could have a significant impact on the Company's business, prospects or financial statements or as otherwise deemed appropriate by the Committee. To review, with management, the Company's finance function, including its budget, organization and quality of personnel.

34. General Authority. To perform such other functions and to have such powers as may be necessary or appropriate in the discharge of any of the foregoing.

Amended and restated by the Board of Directors of Okta, Inc. on December 18, 2025
