Dominion Energy Announces Seasonal Opening for Lake Murray Park Sites

2022-04-12

CAYCE, S.C. (April 11, 2022) — Dominion Energy will open its public parks on the Irmo and Lexington sides of the Lake Murray dam for the 2022 recreation season beginning Wednesday, Apr. 13.

The beach and recreation area on the Lexington side will remain open for the season through Labor Day, Sept. 5.

“Many people look forward to visiting Lake Murray every summer to enjoy this beautiful recreational site in the Midlands of South Carolina,” said Billy Chastain, manager of Lake Management for Dominion Energy South Carolina. “We urge everyone to put safety first — be careful while swimming in the lake and follow boating safety rules.”

Parking fees will be $5 for all vehicles to partially offset the cost of maintenance, security and improvements at the parks. Season passes can be purchased for $50 per vehicle. These fees will be collected from April 13 through Labor Day.

Lexington Side Beach and Recreation Area
Open April 13 through Sept. 5
Operating Hours:

- Mon. – Fri. (Apr. 13 -- May 1) 11 a.m. – 7 p.m.
- Mon. – Fri. (May 1 – Sept. 5) 11 a.m. – 8 p.m.
- Sat.-- Sun. 10 a.m. – 8 p.m.

Irmo Side Boat-Launch Area
Accessible to the public 24 hours per day, year-round. Seasonal parking fees are collected from April 13 through Labor Day.

Alcohol and pets are prohibited at both facilities. No lifeguards will be on duty at the beach site. Swimming is not allowed at the boat launch.
