Dominion Energy Charitable Foundation Fall Grant Cycle Now Open

2026-08-10

- Grants support human needs, environmental stewardship, education and community vitality
- Funding is available to nonprofit organizations in areas where Dominion Energy provides electricity, natural gas or has significant business interests
- Deadline to apply for the fall grant cycle is Sept. 11, 2026 at 5 p.m. ET

RICHMOND, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Nonprofit organizations within Dominion Energy's service areas are invited to apply for grants from the Dominion Energy Charitable Foundation.

Grants will be awarded to support programs and specific projects that focus on human needs, environmental stewardship, education and community vitality. The foundation accepts grant requests during semiannual grant cycles.

The fall grant application period is now open and closes at 5 p.m. ET on Sept. 11. Decisions will be announced in November.

"Every day, local nonprofits deliver essential services and programs to address important community needs," said Hunter A. Applewhite, President of the Dominion Energy Charitable Foundation. "Our shareholder-funded grants are one way we support their work by providing resources to strengthen their efforts and expand their impact."

Funding is available to organizations in areas where Dominion Energy provides electricity, natural gas or has significant business interests. These include Virginia, South Carolina, northeast North Carolina, and parts of West Virginia, Connecticut and Rhode Island.

The foundation will host virtual office hours in August and September to answer questions from nonprofits about the grant application process. For details and to apply for a grant, visit: DominionEnergy.com/foundation.
