Nine Ameriprise Financial Advisors Named to the Barron's "2022 Top Independent Financial Advisors" List

2022-10-03

MINNEAPOLIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Ameriprise Financial, Inc. (NYSE: AMP) today announced that nine of the firm's financial advisors have been named to Barron's "Top Independent Financial Advisors" list. Each year, Barron's identifies the top 100 independent advisors across the country based on various factors that contribute to success in the business. Advisors are ranked on compliance records, the volume of assets overseen by advisors and their teams, revenues generated for their firms, and the quality of the advisors' practices including a high level of ethical standards.

"The advisors that have earned a spot on this acclaimed list have done so by going above and beyond to help their clients pursue their financial goals," said Bill Williams, EVP, President – Ameriprise Independent Advisors. "This recognition speaks to our advisors' ability to forge deep relationships and successfully provide clients with tailored solutions that meet their long-term goals. We're proud to partner with such a committed group of exceptional advisors and we look forward to supporting their continued growth and success."
