U-Store-It Self Storage Jacksonville to Sponsor Resident News Crime Prevention Expo

9/14/2009

JACKSONVILLE, FL -- (MARKET WIRE) -- 09/14/09 -- U-Store-It Trust (NYSE: YSI) -- As increased space constraints, moving, and relocation make in-home storage of personal belongings more difficult, the need for additional storage continues to rise. Self storage facilities not only offer a low-cost and convenient alternative to store excess personal belongings, but also security features designed to protect against theft.

"Customers today are becoming more concerned about security and the safety of their belongings," says Bil Walsh, U-Store-It District Manager. "Each U-Store-It storage facility offers security features, which are a major selling point for customers looking to store their personal possessions."

U-Store-It's 645 Park Street location in Jacksonville, Florida is pleased to host a booth at the Resident News Crime Prevention Expo, on Saturday, September 19th. They will showcase how U-Store-It's Jacksonville self storage facilities offer a convenient alternative to storing personal possessions in-home. Managers from U-Store-It will share safety tips, demonstrate the use of their locking systems, and run a brief presentation on how this self storage facility can be used to keep personal belongings not currently in use safe and secure.

U-Store-It has five storage locations in Jacksonville. The Park Street facility is a four story, indoor climate-controlled building with 24 hour security. To access the lobby, elevators, and floor where a unit is located, customers are assigned a personalized key code. Each storage unit at the Park Street facility is also individually alarmed.
