

PrimeLending Named a Best Workplace for Women for Fifth Consecutive Year

9/19/2019

DALLAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- National residential mortgage lender PrimeLending, a PlainsCapital Company and subsidiary of Hilltop Holdings Inc. (NYSE: HTH), has been named by Great Place to Work® and Fortune magazine as the #16 best place to work on this year's list of 100 Best Workplaces for Women. This marks the fifth year in a row that PrimeLending has been included on this prestigious list.

To determine the Best Workplaces for Women, Great Place to Work® analyzed anonymous survey feedback representing more than 4.6 million employees at Great Place to Work-Certified™ organizations. Employees answered more than 60 survey questions about subjects like fairness and how well women are represented within their given company's workforce, management and executive teams.

"We're so proud to be recognized by our team members as a Best Workplace for Women once again," said Todd Salmans, Chairman and CEO of PrimeLending. "We take pride in having a culture in which all employees feel empowered, valued and supported."

PrimeLending has proven itself as a lender that values equality and diversity and helps women and men of all ages reach their full potential. In recent years, the company has been ranked a Best Workplace for Millennials, Diversity, and Parents<sup>2</sup>.
