“Jason has a proven record as an outstanding leader who brings clarity, decisiveness, and expertise to his roll with our Fixed Income Capital Markets division,” said Brad Wings, President and CEO of HilltopSecurities. “He has established great partnerships between our Public Finance and underwriting leaders to ensure the best execution for our issuing clients.”

Lisec has more than 30 years of experience in fixed income capital markets, as well as risk management. Prior to joining HilltopSecurities, he held leadership positions with A.G. Edwards and Bank of America Merrill Lynch. He currently serves as a board member with the Bond Dealers of America.

“I am excited for the opportunity to continue leading HilltopSecurities’ Fixed Income Capital Markets division as we seek opportunities to expand our capabilities and effectively serve clients across the nation,” Lisec said. “We have an incredibly talented and experienced team.”

In January, HilltopSecurities welcomed Managing Director JP Zaptin as Head of Municipal Trading in Dallas, and in 2023 the firm welcomed Chris Driscoll as Managing Director, Institutional Sales, in New York City. Zaptin joined HilltopSecurities from FHN Financial, and Driscoll joined from JP Morgan Securities.
