Form 144 Notice:

Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, requires directors, executive officers, large shareholders and others in a relationship of control with BRIGHTSTAR PLC to submit Form 144 – Notice of Proposed Sale of Securities Pursuant to Rule 144 Under the Securities Act of 1933 (“Form 144”) with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) when the amount to be sold by the individual during any three month period: (i) exceeds 5,000 shares or units; or (ii) has an aggregate sales price in excess of $50,000.

For purposes of the Form 144 filing, only transactions resulting in a change of beneficial ownership require reporting to the SEC, and the beneficial owner<sup>1</sup> executing the transaction(s) must fulfill the reporting obligation even where the BRIGHTSTAR securities are held under different legal title, and you should contact CorporateSecretary@brightstarlottery.com if you have any questions regarding the contemplated transaction(s) and the filing implications.

Form 144 filings should be submitted to the SEC prior to executing any transaction(s) requiring such notification.

Does your transaction require you to submit Form 144 with the SEC?                      Yes                       No

If yes, please make sure that this is done when you place the order with your broker, at the latest, as a condition subsequent to our approval.

Section 16 Reporting Obligations<sup>2</sup>:

<sup>1</sup> Under the SEC definition, a “beneficial owner” of a security includes any person who, directly or indirectly, through any contract, arrangement, understanding, relationship or otherwise has or shares: (i) voting power, which includes the power to vote or to direct the voting of such security; and/or (ii) investment power, which includes the power to dispose or direct the disposition of such security.

If you have been designated as a Section 16 reporting person, (i.e., a BRIGHTSTAR Board member or Executive Officer), the contemplated transaction may trigger a requirement to file within two business days from the execution date a Form 4 reporting changes to your beneficial ownership. To allow us to prepare an accurate and timely Form 4, you (or your broker) must provide the following information promptly after execution of any transaction other than a transfer between securities accounts:

- Actual execution price(s) for the transaction.
  - If executed in multiple trades, provide either:
    - the price and number of shares for each execution, or
    - the weighted-average price, together with confirmation that the full execution breakdown is available upon request.
- Execution range, including the highest and lowest execution price during the transaction.
- Confirmation whether the transaction was executed in a single lot or multiple lots.

This information is not available to us internally and must be provided by you or your broker. Failure to provide us with complete and accurate trade information immediately after execution may result in:

- Late Form 4 filings, which remain publicly visible on the SEC’s EDGAR system;
- Regulatory and reputational risk to the reporting person, including potential SEC inquiries relating to repeated or material late filings; and
- Corrective or supplemental filings that may be required to remedy inaccuracies.
