IGT Signs Four-Year Contract Extension with New York Lottery to Continue as Primary Technology Supplier

8/30/2022

Company will deliver new claims and payment system

LONDON, Aug. 30, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- International Game Technology PLC ("IGT") (NYSE: IGT) announced today that its subsidiary, IGT Global Solutions Corporation, signed a four-year contract extension with the New York Lottery, one of the most successful lotteries in the U.S. This agreement extends the current contract to August 2026.

As part of the extension, IGT will launch a new claims and payments system. IGT will also continue to provide the New York Lottery with its lottery central system and related technology, retailer training, field services, call center support, instant ticket warehousing and distribution, and upgrades to the infrastructure.

"IGT has built a trusted partnership with the New York Lottery since 1986," said Jay Gendron, IGT Chief Operating Officer, Global Lottery. "For more than 35 years, we have worked collaboratively with the Lottery to deliver world-class, innovative solutions for retailers and players alike."

As the global lottery market leader, IGT has more than 475,000 point-of-sale terminals in customer jurisdictions worldwide. For more information, visit IGT.com and follow us on Facebook and LinkedIn.
