IGT Presents Regionally Attuned Solutions and Compelling New Jackpot Links at Australasian Gaming Expo

7/31/2023

Company's PeakDual27™ and PeakCurve49™ cabinets make regional debut at Australia's premier gaming trade show

LONDON – July 31, 2023 – International Game Technology PLC ("IGT") (NYSE: IGT) announced today that the Company will showcase its latest portfolio of cabinets, games, services and systems at the 2023 Australasian Gaming Expo (AGE) August 15-17 in Sydney. Designed to meet gaming opportunities of today and the future, IGT's regionally attuned solutions will be presented in stand 590.

"AGE provides an ideal platform for IGT to showcase its localized solutions that are designed to deliver peak player entertainment and help grow customer revenues in the ANZ market," said Dallas Orchard, IGT Chief Operating Officer, Gaming APAC. "IGT continues to leverage its global strength with a localized focus to create diversity across our games, hardware and systems portfolios, and we are excited to share our latest innovations at AGE. The event will serve as the regional launch of our PeakDual27 and PeakCurve49 cabinets, which are both enjoying exceptional performance and market penetration in North America; new gaming experiences from our four local game studios, including the Portal Link and Cash Ching standalone progressive games; and a showcase for the latest developments in IGT's cashless and systems-based jackpot solutions."

An assortment of IGT link and standalone games will be on show for operators to experience, including:

- Portal Link™ & Portal Loot™ - the evolution of IGT's successful Outgrow family with enhanced gameplay, second chance and respin features for a more dynamic player experience.

- Cash Ching™ - this standalone progressive series takes the traditional respin mechanic to a new dimension with repeat win opportunities and includes four game titles, each offering unique free game features.
- Prosperity Link™ - brings IGT's award-winning global performer to the Australian market. This new link offers four game titles and combines two exciting gameplay features to create a special respin bonus feature.
- Boost It Up™ - new link and standalone progressive series with an innovative game mechanic and added player interaction for heightened win opportunities.

In addition, IGT will demonstrate its Peak hardware family including the PeakDual27 and PeakCurve49 cabinets. Offering many of the popular features from IGT's Crystal cabinet series, the Peak cabinets deliver a range of enhanced attributes including a re-imagined play experience with screens perfectly optimized for players, seamless curved dual-screen gameplay transitions and an ergonomic, dynamic player panel that features dual bash buttons.

The IGT Systems team will be on stand demonstrating exciting products including the Company's digital wallet solutions that are deployed in the current digital wallet sandbox trial at Club York and beyond. The IGT ADVANTAGE CLUB™ system, which enables venues to be more agile, competitive and efficiently adapt to change, will also be on display. The solution delivers a simple, user-friendly experience which can help accelerate player adoption of cashless gaming technologies.

This high-performing portfolio will be paired with IGT's legendary hospitality and entertainment for a highly engaging experience within IGT's AGE 2023 showcase.

"We invite customers in our AGE booth to meet IGT's local studio teams and engage with game concepts, experience game design ethos and explore what our studios have in store for future game development," added Orchard.
