IGT Enhances iLottery in Lithuania with Remote Game Server and Compelling eInstants

8/30/2023

LONDON, Aug. 30, 2023 /PRNewswire/ -- International Game Technology PLC ("IGT") (NYSE:IGT) today announced that its subsidiary, IGT Global Solutions Corporation, has signed a contract with EULOTO UAB ("Euloto"), the operator providing lottery in the Republic of Lithuania. As part of the agreement, IGT will deploy its advanced cloud-based remote game server (RGS) and at least 12 eInstant games each year.

IGT will integrate its RGS platform with Euloto's iLottery system, enabling Euloto to have access to a wide variety of eInstant content. IGT's eInstant product lineup contains numerous themes, play styles, omnichannel games, popular licensed content and the award-winning progressive jackpot games. Engaging game titles include Gold Blast, Shocking 6's and Castle Cash.

"IGT's vast content portfolio will complement Euloto's iLottery program and offer our players exciting new games to experience," said Mantas Lebedžinskas, EULOTO UAB Director. "Deploying IGT's RGS in the cloud also aligns with our goals of providing our players with modern, high-quality solutions, while providing us with the dynamic scalability and reliability required to help grow our business."

"The integration of IGT's cloud-based RGS will reduce the need for Euloto to go through any major iLottery system conversions in the future because the infrastructure in the cloud is always up-to-date," said Srini Nedunuri, IGT Senior Vice President, Global iLottery. "This advanced technology enables the Lottery to quickly choose which eInstant games they want to offer to their players from IGT's library of exciting themes and play styles."

As the global lottery market leader, IGT is the primary technology provider to 25 lotteries in the U.S., eight of the world's largest 10 lotteries and 16 of the world's top 25 lotteries. For more information, visit IGT.com and follow us on Facebook and LinkedIn.
