IGT Expands Footprint in Spain's 'Salones' Sector with Launch of New Multi-Level Progressive Theme

4/30/2024

Company introduces market-attuned Diamond Mania™ game and surpasses 1,000 amusement with prize gaming machine installations in the region

LONDON – April 30, 2024 – International Game Technology PLC ("IGT") (NYSE: IGT) announced today that its latest multi-level progressive ("MLP") game, Diamond Mania, has launched in Spain's Amusement with Prize (AWP) "salones" sector. Diamond Mania will follow the success of IGT's Magic Fortune Link AWP game in Spain, a high-performing title that recently surpassed a 1,000-unit deployment milestone.

"IGT is committed to growing its footprint in Spain by supplying researched-backed, market-attuned games that meet the player preferences in the region," said Maria Aldana, IGT Director of Sales Western Europe and Africa. "Building on the successful deployment of IGT's debut title for the salones sector, Magic Fortune Link, we are excited to expand our offering to include Diamond Mania, a unique multi-game jackpot that can help operators achieve excellent results and diversify their gaming floors."

Specifically adapted for the salones market, Diamond Mania features four lively base game themes: Samurai Takeo™, Majestic Stallion™, Ramosis Treasures™, and Wish Mistress™. Featuring proven mechanics for a highly engaging experience for players, Diamond Mania offers three special bonuses, a reel boost, a prize boost, and a jackpot bonus, which can combine to activate the super games and mega games features and ultimately lead to the chance to win one of the four progressive jackpots.

Diamond Mania is available on the BINTIA™ 27-inch multi-game cabinet, which offers dual HD monitors and a topper option for casino-like styling. It features an ergonomic design, programmable LED lighting, vivid high-resolution graphics, an immersive sound system, and can be configured with the TITO function.

The game will be exclusively distributed through Orenes Grupo, Spain's salones sector market leader in operations and gaming machine distribution. Later this year, IGT plans to introduce Treasure Box, the Company's third MLP developed specifically for Spain's salones sector, which represents approximately 3,000 gaming and bingo halls.
