IGT's Tiger and Dragon Game Debuts in #1 Position on Eilers & Krejci's US & Canada Game Performance Report

5/28/2024

IGT's winning formula for multi-level progressive games continues with Tiger and Dragon performing at 2.89X zone average, leading "Top Indexing NEW Games – Premium Leased and WAP" category

LONDON, May 28, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- International Game Technology PLC ("IGT") (NYSE: IGT) announced today that its Tiger and Dragon multi-level progressive ("MLP") game debuted in the number-one position on Eilers & Krejci's May 2024 US & Canada Game Performance Report in the "Top Indexing NEW Games – Premium Leased & WAP" category. Tiger and Dragon Cash on Reels took the top position by performing at more than 2.8X zone average and Tiger and Dragon Multipliers ranked third for performing at more than 2.5X zone average.

"Building on the tremendous success of IGT's Prosperity Link and Mystery of the Lamp games, Tiger and Dragon earning this number-one position in Eiler & Krejci's May 2024 game performance report validates our commitment to delivering the industry's best MLP games," said Nick Khin, IGT Chief Operating Officer, Gaming. "Both Tiger and Dragon themes deliver compelling gameplay mechanics, vibrant graphics and stunning merchandising that provide our casino operator partners with games that players truly love to play."

IGT's Tiger and Dragon is housed on IGT's PeakCurve 49 cabinet and features three unique bonuses: Tiger, Dragon, and the combined Tiger and Dragon bonus. The game introduces an entirely new lock-and-re-spin and reveal bonus structure featuring money ball symbols with credit values that can combine. In another new game mechanic, when gong symbols on reels land in the same row, monetary winnings are revealed. Adding to the gameplay excitement are the game's "up arrows" that appear on reels and increase credit values exponentially.
