Brightstar Lottery Signs Multi-Year Contract Extension with ONCE for Lottery Technology Enhancements in Spain

2026-10-22

LONDON, Oct. 22, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Brightstar Lottery PLC (NYSE: BRSL) ("Brightstar") announced today that its subsidiary, Brightstar Global Solutions Corporation, has signed a multi-year contract extension with Organización Nacional de Ciegos Espanoles ("ONCE"), through which it will continue to support ONCE's lottery operations in Spain through software enhancements and the continuing evolution of its central gaming system. Brightstar has been the lottery technology supplier to ONCE since 2002.

"ONCE is pleased to extend our long and successful relationship with Brightstar," said Virginia Castellano, Deputy Director General for Organization, Talent and Resources. "Brightstar is the right partner to help us continue evolving our lottery operations, reinforcing our commitment to safe, responsible lotteries with a social purpose, and enabling us to fund a wide range of social programs and services to support people with severe visual impairments and people with other disabilities in Spain."

"ONCE is world renowned for its commitment to improving the social and professional inclusion of people with disabilities and Brightstar is honored to serve their lottery operations to support this important work," said Marco Tasso, Brightstar Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Global Lottery. "We look forward to continue providing ONCE with leading technology solutions for its lottery system."
