

Vital Farms and Its President & CEO Russell Diez-Canseco Recognized for “Catalyzing Positive Social and Environmental Change” on Big Path Capital’s 2025 MO 100 Top Impact CEO Ranking

Feb 21, 2025

AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 21, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Big Path Capital has honored Vital Farms (Nasdaq: VITL) and its President & CEO Russell Diez-Canseco at #2 on the annual MO 100 Top Impact CEO Ranking. This is the fourth consecutive year the company and Diez-Canseco have been honored, moving up from the #3 spot in 2024 to the #2 spot this year.

Big Path Capital is a global impact investment firm that connects purpose-driven companies to mission-aligned investors. The annual ranking identifies the 100 most impactful leaders by a “Force for Good” Score that is calculated by multiplying a company’s growth rate, its annual revenue, and its B Lab’s B Impact Assessment score, a measurement of a company’s impact on people and the planet.

“Vital Farms and Big Path Capital have a shared belief that business can be used to drive positive outcomes for all of a company’s stakeholders,” said Russell Diez-Canseco, President & CEO, Vital Farms. “We are grateful for this acknowledgement that celebrates the collective work Vital Farms’ entire stakeholder community does every day to advance our purpose to improve the lives of people, animals, and the planet through food.”

Diez-Canseco and other impact CEOs will be honored at the MO 100 Summit Award Ceremony on April 22, 2025, in Asheville, NC. To see the full rankings list, visit: <https://mo-summit.com/mo100-ranking-list-2025/>
