German American Bank Announces Expansion of Access to Over 55,000 Fee-Free ATMs

2018-05-17

JASPER, Ind., May 17, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- German American Bank (NASDAQ:GABC) has partnered with the Allpoint ATM network, the world's largest surcharge-free ATM network, to offer customers expanded access to a network of over 55,000 fee-free ATMs worldwide. Allpoint ATMs are conveniently located in premier retail locations throughout the country and beyond. German American Bank currently offers customers access to 62 fee-free ATMs located throughout its footprint. Adding the 55,000 Allpoint ATM network to its existing ATM fleet gives the bank's personal customers quick access to cash close to home, nationwide and beyond.

"Customers frequently express to us that even if they relocate out of our German American Bank footprint of locations and ATMs, they would still choose to bank with us because of our strong commitment to customer service excellence, if only they were able to conveniently access cash without paying fees," states Mark Schroeder, German American's Chairman and CEO. "Partnering with Allpoint gives our customers - from college students and military families, to travelers and those relocating - convenient access to cash in most any area of the United States, North America and even across the world."
