Visteon announces chief financial officer Jeffrey M. Stafeil to leave company after appointment of successor

2016-01-26

VAN BUREN TOWNSHIP, Mich., Jan. 26, 2016 — Visteon Corporation (NYSE: VC) today announced that Jeffrey M. Stafeil, executive vice president and chief financial officer, will leave the company after the appointment of his successor. Stafeil has agreed to remain in the role to ensure an orderly transition until a successor is hired, which the company is targeting by the end of the first quarter of 2016.

Stafeil has been with Visteon since October 2012. During his tenure, Visteon has transformed from a multi-product automotive supplier to a focused supplier of cockpit electronics and software to the global automotive industry.
