Old National Names Goldfeder Chief Credit Officer

12/7/2023

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Dec. 07, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- (NASDAQ: ONB) – Carrie Goldfeder, a seasoned credit executive with over 25 years of credit and corporate finance experience across all facets of loan production, credit performance and portfolio management, has joined Old National Bank, the wholly-owned banking subsidiary of Old National Bancorp (“Old National”), as Chief Credit Officer. She will office out of Chicago.

For the past eight years Goldfeder served as Co-Head of Corporate Credit, and a Segment Lead, Senior Credit Officer for Capital One. In her prior position she spent more than 15 years at GE Capital, serving as the Segment Risk Leader, Healthcare Financial Services; and Senior Vice President and Team Leader, GE Antares Capital.

In the Chief Credit Officer role, she will provide oversight of ONB’s credit risk; lead the Credit Administration team, including attracting, developing, and retaining talent; and strategically advance the portfolio management capabilities and reputation and services of Old National, among other responsibilities.

“We are delighted to welcome Carrie to our executive team,” said Mark Sander, President and COO. “Her leadership, vision and depth of credit expertise will bring great value as we execute our strategic plan to be our clients’ primary financial partner. Carrie’s drive and collaborative style are a strong fit with our relationship- and values-based culture.”

Goldfeder attended the University of Iowa, earning a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a concentration in finance and accounting.
