Old National Bancorp Completes Purchase of Integra Wealth Management Division

2011-06-01

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 1, 2011 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Old National Bancorp (NYSE:ONB) announced today that it has completed its acquisition of Integra Wealth Management and Trust, a division of Integra Bank, National Association Corp.

As a result of the closing, Integra Wealth Management clients - who include families and businesses in areas of Indiana, Kentucky and Illinois - immediately become Old National Wealth Management clients with full access to Old National's investment experts, products and technology.

"Old National and Integra are long-time community partners and neighbors who share a similar commitment to serving clients and communities," said Carrie Ellspermann, President and CEO of Old National Wealth Management. "I'm delighted to say that our Old National team of experts is already hard at work helping our new clients maintain and build wealth."

"The transition of our wealth management and trust clients to Old National has been smooth and seamless," stated Mike Alley, President and CEO of Integra Bank Corporation. "Though we're disappointed to exit this line of business, we know the move to Old National is in the best interests of our clients and they will be well taken care of by Old National's skilled team."
