Two-day 'Better Together Days' volunteer blitz supports communities
EVANSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 23, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- (NASDAQ: ONB) – Old National Bancorp (“Old National”) established a new organizational record for volunteer hours served during its 4th annual Better Together Days, a two-day volunteer blitz held on Sept. 17-18.

The two days, where Old National team members signed-up for four-hour volunteer shifts, provided team members across Old National's Midwest and Southeast footprint with a chance to give back to the communities where they live and work. Virtual volunteer opportunities were also made available. Old National team members participated in volunteer activities in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, North Carolina, North Dakota, Tennessee, Wisconsin, and Florida.

Better Together Days 2025 by the numbers:

- 2,100 Old National team members participating
- 7,940 hours volunteering
- 116 organizations served
- 12 states included

“Better Together Days are more than a tradition—they’re a reflection of who we are as a community bank,” said Kathy Schoettlin, Old National's Chief Communication, Culture and Social Responsibility Officer. “Each year, our team members show up with heart and purpose, making service a cornerstone of our culture. This year’s record-breaking participation across 12 states is a powerful reminder that when we come together, we create lasting impact for community organizations throughout the Midwest and Southeast.”
