2017-08-30

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 30, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- For the 2nd consecutive year, Old National Bank has been named one of the Best Banks to Work For by American Banker magazine.

Initiated in 2013 by American Banker and Best Companies Group, Best Banks to Work For identifies, recognizes and honors U.S. banks for outstanding employee satisfaction. Full results of this year's program are available at <http://www.bestbankstoworkfor.com/> or <https://www.americanbanker.com/> and in the September issue of American Banker magazine.

"Our annual ranking recognizes the financial institutions that are committed to investing in employees' job satisfaction, career development and personal growth – a ‘return on assets’ that can be hard to measure by traditional means,” said Marc Hochstein, editor in chief of American Banker. “One of the most valuable assets for any organization is the team of people it employs, and banks are no exception.”

Determining the Best Banks to Work For is a two-step process. The first involves an evaluation of participating companies’ workplace policies, practices and demographics. Secondly, employee surveys are conducted to directly assess the experiences and attitudes of individual employees with respect to their workplace. The combined scores determine the top banks and the final ranking.

“Being recognized as one of the best banks to work for in the nation is a tremendous honor and a strong validation of our commitment to creating an engaging, enriching and inclusive environment for all our associates,” said Old National CEO and Chairman Bob Jones.

Best Companies Group managed the overall registration and survey process and also analyzed the data to determine the final ranking. Best Banks to Work For includes commercial banks, thrifts, savings banks and other chartered retail financial institutions with at least 50 employees in the United States.
