Old National welcomes Christine Hobrough to leadership team

2021-04-15

Minneapolis-St. Paul, MN – Old National Bank announced the addition of veteran Twin Cities banking executive Christine Hobrough to the company's leadership team. She joins Old National as Community Banking President and will oversee all Community Banking activities across the bank's five-state footprint. She will be headquartered in the Twin Cities.

Hobrough brings many years of experience with U.S. Bank to her new role, including numerous senior leadership positions. She began her career as a teller while attending the University of Minnesota and rose through the ranks to become region manager for the headquarters market. Hobrough also served as U.S. Bank's Chief Administrative Officer for Community Banking and Branch Delivery. Most recently, she headed efforts to increase collaboration for the company's Consumer and Business Banking division.

Christine is a 'can-do' leader with a passion for talent development, which makes her an ideal fit for Old National's culture," said Todd Clark, ONB Community Banking CEO. "Her breadth of experience and proven success will undoubtedly benefit our Community Banking team members and clients."

A six-time recipient (along with several of her fellow leaders) of U.S. Banker Magazine's prestigious Top Women in Banking Team award, Hobrough was also named an "Industry Leader" by the Minneapolis St. Paul Business Journal for achievements in banking and leadership in the community. After being nominated by the City of Minneapolis for her work in co-chairing the West Broadway Alive! taskforce to revitalize the North Minneapolis corridor, Hobrough was named one of the "Top Women in Finance" by Finance & Commerce magazine.

A Twin Cities resident, Hobrough earned a bachelor's degree in Economics from the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis and an MBA from the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul. She also is an alumna of the Graduate School of Retail Bank Management, sponsored by the Consumer Bankers Association in conjunction with the University of Virginia at Charlottesville.
