New Digital Platform from McGraw Hill Designed to Help Learners in India Succeed on High Stakes Exams

2023-06-27

[New Delhi] – June 21, 2023 – McGraw Hill, a leading global education company, today announced the launch of McGraw Hill Edge in India. McGraw Hill Edge is a comprehensive digital learning solution that provides students with the guidance and resources they need to prepare for, study and excel in competitive management, civil service, engineering and medical exams like CAT, UPSC, CTET, JEE and NEET.

McGraw Hill Edge offers a variety of features that help students learn more effectively, including:

- Flexible learning modules for students to choose from and select only what they need
- A wealth of original resources including videos, previous year exams, practice problems and mock tests that help students master concepts
- Expert guidance from McGraw Hill's extensive team of experienced educators through live webinars and on-demand video lessons
- A mobile app that allows students to access their learning materials and resources on the go

By combining the flexibility of live webinars with the convenience of recorded sessions, McGraw Hill Edge ensures that students can access expert guidance anytime, anywhere. Whether attending a live session or watching a recording at their own pace, learners have the freedom to choose the learning mode that suits their schedule and preferences.

"As a global education company with a long history of innovation and excellence, we are committed to providing high-quality educational content and solutions that help students achieve their full potential," said Lalit Singh,

Managing Director, McGraw Hill, India. "Through the McGraw Hill Edge platform, learners can access expert sessions, comprehensive study materials and exam preparation strategies, all designed to boost their confidence as they prepare for competitive exams."

"I am excited to see how McGraw Hill Edge can help students in India achieve their dreams. I believe that our platform has the potential to make a real difference in the lives of students," he added.

Courses for UPSC, CAT, and CTET are available now for purchase through McGraw Hill Edge's website and the app. For more information, please visit edge.mheducation.co.in/courses.
