S&P Global Ratings Upgrades McGraw Hill

2026-09-21

COLUMBUS, Ohio--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- McGraw Hill, Inc. (NYSE: MH; "McGraw Hill" and the "Company"), a leading global provider of education solutions for preK-12, higher education and professional learning, today announced that it has received upgraded ratings from S&P Global Ratings.

On September 18, 2026, S&P Global Ratings upgraded McGraw-Hill Education, Inc.'s ratings, including its corporate family rating (CFR) to BB- from B+, its senior secured notes and senior secured first lien bank credit facility ratings to BB from BB- and its senior unsecured notes rating to B from B-. The outlook was changed to stable.

"These upgrades from S&P follow the upgrades from Moody's Ratings in July 2026 and validate the progress we have made to reduce gross debt and continue to position McGraw Hill for sustainable growth," said Bob Sallmann, the Company's Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer. "These upgrades substantiate the continued execution of the McGraw Hill team and the opportunity ahead for the business as we invest in the future of education."
