Savara Joins Russell 3000® Index

2018-06-25

AUSTIN, Texas, June 25, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Savara Inc. (NASDAQ:SVRA), an orphan lung disease company, announced today that the company has been added to the broad-market Russell 3000 Index.

“In the little more than one year since transitioning to the public markets, Savara’s inclusion in the Russell 3000 Index marks another milestone reflecting the significant progress we have made toward building a leading orphan lung disease company,” stated Rob Neville, chief executive officer of Savara. “We continue to execute against our vision, with key value drivers expected starting this year and into 2019.”

Annual Russell US Indexes reconstitution captures the 4,000 largest US stocks as of May 11, 2018, ranking them by total market capitalization. Membership in the Russell 3000® Index, which remains in place for one year, means automatic inclusion in the large-cap Russell 1000® Index or small-cap Russell 2000® Index as well as the appropriate growth and value style indexes. FTSE Russell determines membership for its Russell US Indexes primarily by objective, market-capitalization rankings and style attributes.

Russell US Indexes are widely used by investment managers and institutional investors as the basis for index funds and as benchmarks for active investment strategies. Approximately $9 trillion in assets are benchmarked against Russell US Indexes. Russell US Indexes are part of FTSE Russell, a leading global index provider.
